OLUME V. NO. 27.

TR PHILANTHROPIST,

HE OHIO STATE ANTI-SLAVERY SOCIETY. Min st., between 4th & 5th, East side.

CINCINNATI, OHIO.

SAMUEL A. ALLEY, Printer.

THE PRESENT STATE OF SLAVERY.

WHOLE NO. 230

COMMUNICATIONS.

POLITICAL.

For the Philanthropist.

The crisis has arrived, at which I think a public repetition of my political anti-slavery sentiments advan-ced at Massilon, is calculated to do some good; I therefore send them for insertion in the Philanthropist,

TWO DOLLARDS a year in additional for insertion in the Philanthropist.

In the first place, I repeat my solemn protest first made at Massilon, against that undue and improper degree of importance which to make a positive interpretation in the Philanthropist. torial department, to the Entron-In all importance, which too many abolitionists seem disposed Terms of Advertising.

Terms of lines, or less, one insertion, $0 50 cach additional insertion, which I suppose is the reason, why no specific directions are given respecting it in the Scriptures.

The sum of the intervent which which is a moral evide, with which sum of several and intervent which is a moral evide, with which sum of several and intervent which is a moral evide, with which sum of several and intervent which is a moral evide, with which sum of several and intervent which is a moral evide, with which sum of several and intervent which which is a moral evide, with which sum of several and intervent which which is a moral evide, with which sum of several and intervent which several with alterations, 6 00

"I year " " 10 00

"I year cent, on all advertisements occupyfigure that the continuous of the choice of the choice of the least of large and other and other and provided in promoting the universal moral agitation, of the merfigure that the present time, neglect to preach and other and incuttant that doctrine in proportion to the falsehoods, misrepresentations, ridicule, and other and incuttant that doctrine in proportion to the falsehoods, misrepresentations, ridicule, and other and incuttant that doctrine in proportion to the falsehoods, misrepresentations, ridicule, and other and incuttant that doctrine in proportion to the falsehoods, misrepresentations, ridicule, and other and incuttant that doctrine in proportion to the falsehoods, misrepresentations, ridicule, and other and incuttant that doctrine in proportion to the falsehoods, misrepresentations, ridicule, and other and incuttant that doctrine in proportion to the falsehoods, misrepresentations, ridicule, and other and incuttant that doctrine in proportion to the falsehoods, misrepresentations, ridicule, and other and incuttant that doctrine in proportion to the falsehoods, misrepresentations, ridicule, and other and incuttant that doctrine in proportion to the falsehoods, misrepresentations, ridicule, and other and incuttant that doctrine in proportion to the falsehoods, misrepresentations, ridicule, and other unprinciple in proportion to the falsehoods, misrepresentations, ridicule, and other unprinciples.

I have stated, that the exercise of the political rights, buses, employed by other parties, to promote their unprinciples. I have stated, that the exercise of the political rights, buses, employed by other parties, to promote their unprinciples. I have stated, that the exercise of the political rights, and incuttant that the falsehoods, misrepresentations, ridicule, and other unprinciples. I have stated, that the exercise of the political rights, buses, employed by other parties, to promote their unprinciples. I have s to preach and pray and lecture and exhort one way, and to vote in and to vote right. This leads me to a criticism on then vote the other—to pray God to send us legislators and other rulers who will abolish slavery, and then go tween natural evils,—as for instance between death and by the use of bad ones. Yet there are some professed and adopt a system of free labor stores, adver-

there must be a constant purchase of the must be a constant purchase of any the purchase of the must be demand.

Let abolition, the must be a constant purchase of the must be demand.

Let abolition to the stageth and acted on by myself—but it ought not to be taught and acted on by myself—but it ought not to be taught and acted on by myself—but it ought not to be taught and acted on by myself—but it ought not to be taught and acted on by myself—but it ought not to be taught and acted on by myself—but it ought not to be taught and acted on by myself—but it ought not to be taught and acted on but perfectly honest, put the process and nut to the laws of any myself—but it ought not to be taught and acted on but perfectly honest, put the plain to the suppostant is and the order on the must be defectual promotion and the subspect of the the means employed to rescue the cargoes of slave vessels have supplied the active of slave vessels have supplied the subspect of the the means employed to rescue the cargoes of slave vessels have supplied the subspect of the the means employed to rescue the cargoes of slave vessels have supplied the subspect of the theorem and the vilig party may be lesser moral activates of the theorem and the vilig party may be lesser moral anti-slavery agitation, and should be zealously to moral anti-slavery agitation, and the candidates whom they have nominated for the present generally agit to support a candidate who has committed they have nominated for the principles of the unterest, or the sake of perventing the support and anti-slavery agitation, and the candidates whom they have nominated for the presidency, at this time pervention of another who has committed they have nominated seld upon that territory, the slaveholders have Nor is there half the difference in the efficiency of dif-

Those abolitionists who are attached to the present par- less. The French nation are engaged in the considerable of the present part of the rights of the slaves in their own basies, and their or the rights of the slaves in their own basies, and their caucus or other political perspective of their produce, as they can best spare, and as will be fire anti-slavery institutions are they cannot thus act, they ought to act independently. And this is easily done by the following process,—when basies, and their caucus or other political nearest of the person that the person their political perspective shall gereably to their anti-slavery institutions are the green to the causes, and to deliver, and as well as the person that they are their political perspective shall gereably to their anti-slavery because they can make the process,—when their political perspective shall gereably to their anti-slavery process, and as well as the person their or the process,—when their caucus or other political nearest of the person that the person the person that the person their or the process of the person that the person their or the process, and the decision of the 250,080 has a set they can dispersion still exists, of no mitigated or or any person still exists, of no mitigated or or any person still exists, of no mitigated or or any person still exists, of the person their or their or their or their or their political person to their political person to their possible than a person their or their political person their political person to their political person their anti-slavery and the person their political perso offinent of those resolutions, by the multitude of antidoi,300

10,000

324,000

10,000

3000

10,000

3000

10,000

3000

10,000

3000

10,000

3000

10,000

3000

10,000

3000

10,000

3000

10,000

3000

10,000

3000

10,000

3000

10,000

3000

10,000

3000

10,000

3000

10,000

3000

10,000

10,000

3000

10,000

3000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,000

10,00

very candidates is not of half the importance to the cause as is the immense agitation that such canvasses would-produce.

By pursuing this friendly course with the existing parties, another formidable difficulty will be avoided. Were abolitionists to form a distinct party, entirely independent of others, as was well argued by brethren Nichols, Walker, and others, as was well argued by brethren Nichols, Walker, and others, at Massilton, they would be under the necessity of adopting other political principles and objects, besides those of abolition. But by remaining with the burden of their support. We believe that great good may be done in aid of the antislavery cause, by this kind of voluntarily support.

Carter.

A collection was made to defray the expense of the scriptures, it is the special official duty of the scriptures, it is the special official duty of the scriptures, it is the special official duty of the christian as necessary to declare the whole counsel of God;" and, also, that according to the spirit of the scriptures, they are bound to the political contest between them, with under the political contest between them, with the political contest between them, with under the political contest between them, with under the political contest between them, with unde

Many affect to find fault with the way the abolitionissel themselves, and they therefore apply to seed themselves, and they therefore apply to set a the seed to see if such is not the dreadth set, vide 1 Tim. v, 22—2 John, 11.

After organizing, by the appointen
cers, the convention united in prayer.

Committees were then appointed
the sin of such puricipation is much greater in such as profess opposition to those sins, than it is in others. Let abolitionists remember these solemn facts, when they committee we profess opposition to those sins, than it is in others. Let abolitionists remember these solemn facts, when they committee we promised to commit
the sin of such puricipation is much greater in such as profess opposition to those sins, than it is in others. Let abolitionists remember these solemn facts, when they
cers, the convention united in prayer.

Committees we profess opposition to those sins, than it is in others.

Committees we profess oppo

Nor is there half the difference in the efficiency of different modes of men of desperate characters and fortunes, by whom it has been at last better and fortunes, by whom it has been at last better is. Any such mode faithfully pursued, will be found a very useful instrumentality for the British government, alive to the impensive action. Nor is one mode great purpose above mentioned—that is it will more or less increase moral agitation. Nor sone mode great purpose, accordingly in political action was ever morally justificated in any case, it is so for the overthrow of slavery. Nor have I seen a single argument founded on expedient cy, but what might be used with more plausibility against other political action, that many honestly suppose there is. Any such mode faithfully pursued, will be found a very useful instrumentality for other political action, that many honestly suppose there is. Any such mode faithfully pursued, will be found a very useful instrumentality for other political action, that many honestly suppose there is. Any such mode faithfully pursued, will be found a very useful instrumentality for other political action, that many honestly suppose there is. Any such mode faithfully pursued, will be found a very useful instrumentality for other political action, that many honestly suppose there is. Any such mode faithfully pursued, will be found a very useful instrumentality for other political action, that many honestly suppose there is. Any such mode faithfully pursued, will be found a very useful instrumentality for other political action, that many for how have I seen a single rigument founded on expedient converted action was ever morally justification. Nor have I seen a single rigument founded on expedient converted to another that many honestly suppose there is. Any such many case, it is so for the overthrow of slavery. Nor have I seen a single rigument founded on expedient converted to another that many honestly suppose there is. Any such many case, it is so for the overthrow of slavery. Nor h Certainly, if political action was ever morally justifi to acknowledge the independence of a state abolitionists are mostly to be blamed, who will not select abolitionists are mostly to be blamed, who will not select abolitionists are mostly to be blamed, who will not select abolition to any project is founded in sophistry or falso opposition to any project is founded in sophistry or falso opposition to any project is a good to slavery.

Of course, there is a great deal of speculation and extension only, I always conclude the project is a good 1. Resolved, That is arties as most of them now are, they will entirely avoid and the quicker it is made so, the better it will be for the parties as most of them now are, they will entirely avoid this necessity, and also that of independent or separate action at all-except when the parties themselves compel them to resort to it, in order to act consistently with their them to resort to it, in order to act consistently with their the series of the whole country.—And further, that it is completely in the power of abolitionists to render it such.

And I also declare it as my conviction, that the abolition tional sins, with an energy, severity, and repe-

CINCINNATI, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1840.

and other rules who will abolitionists who affect great concern, lest the holy cause of abolitionists who affect great concern, lest the holy cause of abolitionists who affect great concern, lest the holy cause of abolitionists who affect great concern, lest the holy cause of abolitionists who affect great concern, lest the holy cause of abolitionists who affect great concern, lest the holy cause of abolitionists who affect great concern, lest the holy cause of abolition should receive injury, by mingling with the choice. But this is not the case in relation to moral evity waters of politics." But so far as I have observed, the support in the slavery lebors so long as we are gainty of suca nybocritic in the properties of long as we are gainty of suca nybocritic in the properties of long as we are gainty of suca nybocritic in the properties of slaves in the Dutch possession of slaves in the Dutch possession of exactly ascertained. In Surinam is not exactly ascertained in the propriety of the dandidated to support sin, at any rate!—or, we should have the moral right: these same alarmists are without exception, the very meters, or the support sin, at any rate!—or, we should have the moral right: these same alarmists are without exception, the very meters in those "dirty waters," for the support sin, at any rate!—or, we should have the moral right: the end and index of the moral right: the end and index of the moral principal departments.

The notion for adoption of such a system.

The motion for adoption of such a system.

The motion for adoption elicited considerable and causes, the moral agint to support lesser sints in preference to greater!—

The motion for adoption of such as a static of the moral principal to support lesser sints in preference to greater!—

The motion for the direct causes, the moral agin

After organizing, by the appointment of offi- President of the United States, cers, the convention united in prayer.

Committees were then appointed as follows:

serve Society, reported against the measure.

Explos.

27, 307

Total, 26, 30, 30

Total, 26, 30

Total, 26

own principles and views of motal duty.

Indeed I do not see that any abolitionists, except those ical as well as moral evils, with which our unhappy counalence; that the immediate abolition of slavery reported, in part, as follows:

1. Resolved, That abolitionists, in their individual and collective capacities, have always and truly maintained that the question of anti-slavery is paramount to all others before the political whig principles, upon what I believe to be, community.

cy to slavery, both in parties and individuals, a ties of our country. For me then to claim, that disqualification for receiving the suffrages of a party, has no influence upon my views of the

Met in the afternoon, according to adjourn- mentalities; and that we will at all times regard the entire fabrick of civil liberty in this country The committee on organizing a Western Re- political anti-slavery integrity, and cultivate and element of ruin to our political edifice, that I The report was referred back to a committee far as it may be available for that purpose, we ly on and see its destructive working, without Committee on Ways and Means reported the the means specifically appointed in the scrip- I have not yet been able to discover, how my following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That it is the imperative spelic sins, using our political means no further body politic, is to further the cause of emancipa-from the burden of their support. We believe committee appointed to procure and circulate

For the Philanthropist.

Cleaveland, Sept. 14th, 1840.

DR. BAILEY-Dear Sir:-I received the Phis lanthropist of the 8th inst. this morning, and 1 observe in it, my name among the list of Electors for President and Vice President, nominated at the Hamilton Convention. Perceiving that I must have been selected, through some misapprehension of my views, as to the expediency of running a third candidate for the Pres idency at the coming election, I take this opportunity respectfully to withdraw my name from the list of electoral candidates. Thus giving the friends of the measure, an early oppor-tunity of supplying the vacancy occasioned by spirit of many of the prominent members, and would be leaders of the Whig party, to the insolent, and ever-encroaching spirit of southern slavery. Still in principle, I am a Whig, havsober and careful examination of the interests in 2. Resolved. That the abolitionists have unilargement of that patronage, backed by a party 6. Resolved, That the state convention to be offering no obstacles to the largest strides of convened at Hamilton, be earnestly advised to Executive encroachments, but on the contrary, On address and resolutions-Charles Olcott, form an electoral ticket for the Freeman's party exhibiting the most intensely active co-operation only way in which they are involved in the discussion, which they are involved in the discussion of pholding and continuing slavery.—

Let do so, by receiving and disposing of goods fear the foregoing reasons it is, that I am sorty to see the foregoing reasons it is, that I am sorty to see the foregoing reasons it is, that I am sorty to see the foregoing reasons it is, that I am sorty to see the foregoing reasons it is, that I am sorty to see the foregoing reasons it is, that I am sorty to see the foregoing reasons it is, that I am sorty to see the foregoing reasons it is, that I am sorty to see the foregoing reasons it is, that I am sorty to see the foregoing reasons it is, that I am sorty to see the foregoing reasons it is, that I am sorty to see the foregoing reasons it is, that I am sorty to see the foregoing reasons it is, that I am sorty to see dential election.

The revolted province of Texas, at the institution of some of the southern states of American and I the objections against political anti-slavery actions and the noving carefully examined these doctrines, before the next pression, and Charles Clapp.

The revolted province of Texas, at the institution of since of the southern states of American and the objections against political anti-slavery actions and the noving carefully examined these doctrines, before the next pression, and Charles Clapp.

The revolted province of Texas, at the institution of slavery and only the foreign graph of the southern states of American and Milrath, A. Wright, and the institution of slavery actions a steadily undergoing the graph of the southern states of American and the noving carefully examined the section.

The revolted province of Texas, at the institution of slavery and only need graph of the stream of change, need to the southern states of American and the noving carefully examined the subtract of the next present the season of the stream of the province of National Province o in this state, and to nominate a candidate for with the executive, in all its graspings after it as such; and that while we remain firm to our must be utterly overthrown, constitutes such an exercise that species of anti-slavery agency, so cannot, as a patriot or an honest man, look coldwill yet make far greater sacrifices in the use of uniting with my fellow citizens to eradicate it.

The severities of American tyranny can be conceived. The atrocities of the account of the atrocities of the severities of American tyranny can be conceived. The atrocities of the severities of American tyranny can be conceived. The atrocities of the severities of American tyranny can be conceived. The atrocities of the severities of American tyranny can be conceived. The atrocities of the severities of American tyranny can be conceived. The atrocities of the severities of American tyranny can be conceived. The atrocities of the severities of American tyranny can be conceived. The atrocities of the severities of Antonia are simple to the severities of the severy abolitionist, now and at all the atrocities of the severy abolitionist, now and at all the severy abolition at all the severy abolitions, now and at all the severy abolition at all the severy abolitions, now and at all the severy abolition at all the severy abolitions, now and at all the severy abolition at all the severy abolition at all the severy abolitions, now and at all the severy abolition at all the severy abolition nations to the cause, of such specific articles of slavery voters every where, always to vote shrine of the bloody god of slavery, yet has so Those abolitionists who are attached to the present parties, should, I think, remain and act with them, so far as their produce, as they can best spare, and as will agreeably to their anti-slavery principles, and much of the feelings of an American Republicant their produce, as they can best spare, and to de-never to be guilty, as too many of them have can the product the present parties.

These abolitionists who are attached to the present parties, should, I think, remain and act with them, so far as their produce, as they can best spare, and to de-never to be guilty, as too many of them have can best spare.

Canara, Malabar, Coorg, Wynaud, } Cochin, and Travancore, Tinnevelly, Trickenopoly, Arcot, South division, North Southern Concan, Ceylon,

Assam,

Let Gen. Harrison be elected, and what will be the condition of the whig party? Will they any who beat the name.) who deem it not only rency, and a stable policy to be pursued in all fruits of party animosity. call of Liberty, like men awaking from the spell for the friends of emancipation.

political atmosphere. well be expected to adhere to that party, and thus whigh with a little rigor.

lution and civil war.

we disregard all interests but those of the slave.
But this will not prove you right, unless you prove that none but slaves have rights which eight to be regarded. But you say, that you treat all interests as subordinate to the interests of the point at issue; and I have endeavored to of the slave. This may or may not be right. If the interests which you treat as subordinate, do not in reality conflict with the interests which you regard as paramount, then it is not you regard the prosent crisis.

More that this, I have declared, publicly, that I consider the prosent crisis.

More than this, I have declared, publicly, that I consider the prosent crisis.

More than this, I have declared, publicly, that I consider the prosent crisis.

More than this, I have declared, publicly, that I consider the prosent crisis.

The popular move and moderate wealth to go into business.

Sth. The last advantage gives a competition of purchasers which, independent of the increase of the circulating medium, adds a fraction to the value of our marketable productions.

If there are any other advantages to be decided to the interests which you regard to the prosent crisis.

And

motive of the third party men? It seems plain to my mind, that as abolitionists, we ought to be sholly governed by one of two motives, or both in concert, viz. to propagate our principles—and to carry those principles into practical effect. The third party men must be governed by one of two motives, or both of the standard makes and the coloring overed by those motives. Well then, is the scheme effectual while its advocates are in a hopeless minority, as a means of enforcing their principle, and participant in motivations against, and scarcely a column of the whole of it in our paper, with the exception of an introductory paragraph.

Our last week's paper contained one page of the whole of it in our paper, with the exception of an introductory paragraph.

No various have carried a permuous our communications against, and scarcely a column of the whole of it in our paper, with the exception of an introductory paragraph.

There is a high virtua in preserved to carry those principles into preadical effect. The third party men must be governed by those motives. Well then, is the scheme effectual while its advocates are in a hopeless minority, as a means of enforcing their principle.

There is a high virtua in preserve thing sources of wealth. They forget that wealth dows only from labor and productive skill, and that by the lasts of native that we have made to the labor or our natural through the same and not more of unfaitness. There is a high virtua in preserve third is a preserve than an an example of unfaitness to those of our correspondents who are opposed to our course. This week we publish an article rather favoring our side of the our will be exception of an introductory paragraph.

There is a high virtua in preserve that we have made to the latter class on file than of the former, but because we wished to avoid even the appearance of unfaitness to those of our correspondents who are opposed to our course. This week we publish an article rather favoring our side of the eaction of government. It seems to tha tioning the candidates and scattering our votes, of abolitionism is not to rule the nation, but to stir it to of banks is, that if they are discontinued it will hoods have been propagated on both sides, and his party.

constitute an overwhelming majority, with but their right, but their duty to vote for Gen. Harthe will of one corrupt and selfish man to act as rison at the approaching election. And here I visions I see more danger to the cause than it could the organ of its power? Most certainly not. wish to observe, that those third party or third ever, perhaps, have encountered from its elemies. Heav-The abolitionists, I trust, will thunder in the candidate editors, who find unthing to busy them. en grant it a safe deliverance from both. ears of power the wrongs of insulted freedom, selves about but accusing such of as deep dein the person of the friendless, perishing slave. pravity as the vile wretch who would hunt the The manly and independent whig, will call with trembling fugitive wind dog and gun, at the bidding of his includes pursuer—would do well to of the free laborer. The hardy farmer and artizan, who live by the sweat of their brows, will bring men to abolitionism. I allow to a short other body of men in the country at this time are ever prosecond this call with an energy that will gauge article which I saw in a number of the Eman feesing to do any thing for the clear interest; so that the knees of the southern task-master to staite cipator, which I have not now before me. I was one against the other. The merchant, selfish pained and mortified, that third partyism should and calculating as ever, will demand a sound cur- so soon have brought forth one of the bitter matters pertaining to his business. The manu-facturer will clamor in no smothered terms, for motives most certainly are, and enlightened as a protective tariff to aid the developement of the infant energies of this mighty people. The that there are abolitionists, who ask themselves to be, to remember the following Resolutions, past at the Knox Co. markets at greatadvantage. Indeed nothing can part of the state, have been citizens of slaveholter insolent, and convent on the following Resolutions, past at the Knox Co. markets at greatadvantage. Indeed nothing can part of the state, have been citizens of slaveholter insolent, and convent on the following Resolutions, past at the Knox Co. operate more clearly to the overthrow of our ding states. Why the democrats have not important the following Resolutions, past at the Knox Co. operate more clearly to the overthrow of our ding states. Why the democrats have not important the following Resolutions, past at the Knox Co. operate more clearly to the overthrow of our ding states. Why the democrats have not important the following Resolutions at the follo slaveholder, insolent, and corrupt as he has ev- what could be gained to the slave, should every instant. er been-will, on pain of nullification, demand abolitionist in the United States vote for Mr. Bir. 1st. Resolved. That it becomes abolitionists out protective tariff. that the entire prosperity of the nation shall ney? And when the painful assurance comes to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li smoke upon the altar of his herrid deity—and home to their hearts, that it would ensure the re

berty and truth, as the slave holders are in be berty and truth, as the slave holders are in be
compared to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li berty and truth, as the slave holders are in be
compared to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li berty and truth, as the slave holders are in be
compared to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li
compared to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li
compared to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li
compared to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li
compared to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li
compared to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li
compared to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li
compared to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li
compared to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li
compared to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li
compared to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li
compared to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li
compared to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li
compared to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li
compared to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li
compared to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li
compared to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li
compared to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li
compared to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li
compared to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li
compared to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li
compared to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li
compared to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li
compared to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li
compared to be as unwavering and decided in favor of li compared to be as unwavering and decided in f the weak, corrupt, and recreant dough-face will cleated and falter, and yield as usual;—and last, though not least, the scattered band of the rout-cold democrats, will seek some rallying point.—
The chain of government patronage, which might perhaps modify the tone of their description, and be some inducement for them to their hearts, that it would ensure the results should be the stock-berry and truth, as the slave holders are in berry and truth, as the slave holder thousand fragments-these would then think, launch their thunders upon the enemies of the utter hostility to the present Anti-Slavery move- to adopt a system, which must produce individ- tucky, and Mr. Tyler of Virginia, have been and feel, and act, as men, and would rally at the slave, rather than reserve so large a volley of it ments; it is not consistent for abolitionist to east ual inequality. I should see palaces and rail busy in teaching the people of Ohio how to vote.

I have no sympathy with those whig aboli- Harrison and Tyler. The very foundations of party-organization, tionists, or those whigs, who discover an emiswill then be torn up from their profoundest sary of loco-focoism in every friend of indepento the study of politics, that they may be qualito the study of politics, that they may be qualito the study of politics, that they may be qualito the study of politics, that they may be qualito the study of politics, that they may be qualidepths, and scatter to their original elements, — dent nominations. Those noble souls have vote of 21 years to 19 nays—a large number not were called slaves or paid laborers. and those elements will settle down upon new fought too long and suffered too much, in the voting at all, affinities, "bone to his bone," - and a half cen- sacred cause of human freedom, to sell themtury will probably pass away, before another selves to be the miserable tools of a desperate Brother Bailey, -The above is a pretty fair party. For shame! Let us confide in each ostatement of our recent quarterly meeting.

But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van

But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van

But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van

But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van

But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van

Brother Balley,—The above is a pretty meeting.

Brother Balley,—The above is a pretty meeting.

Brother Balley,—The above is a pretty menting from Hamilton, I debated of our recent quarterly meeting.

But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van with the like complacency, let us each in his ing, I am persuaded that many who voted a ling, such thunder storm will be needed to clear the party. For shame! Let us confide in each o- statement of our recent quarterly meeting. But years, will now be confirmed in their hands .- to smite the democratic party hip and thigh; and The servility of the chief of the party to the especially, to beware of those self-styled demoslave power, will have its reward; and the pro-slavery whigs, looking now to this source of all power, as the last hope of their ambition, may tionists who show a disposition to treat the pendent moral action. But, enraptured as they are with John Rankin in his letter of August 27th, con- ed to be out of the pot, if they should get into But it is urged that the whigs, beaten by the slightest disposition to realize in his own person its exminority, have already been beaten for twelve successive campaigns; and should the defection and of internal improvement, but these are the democrate in the legislature were forward to do with the shade the march of democracy; &, at the ments by the general government, but these are the helpless for succer? or would they be most likely to throw up—their opposition to the giant party, and rush with the mass of the nation, to the fatal embraces of pro-slavery democracy?

But it is said we must do right, regardless of the Philanthropist.

To human rights—the United States Senate? Are these men really lock for help? Will the helpless go to human rights—the United States Senate? Are these men really desirous that the abolitionists should form a not agree with him. The advantages of bank votes in the South and his opinions on that subject are the same as mine."

The fataless of the united States Senate? Are these men really desirous that the abolitionists should form a not agree with him. The advantages of bank subject are the same as mine."

The federalist thought that the definition of the Whigs, and destroy you both. Away with them.

E. N.

But it is said we must do right, regardless of the Philanthropist.

The party would prove the destruction of the U. States Senate? Are these men really desirous that the abolitionists should form a total agree with him. The advantages of bank subject are the same as mine."

The federalist thought that the definition of the U. States Senate? Are these men really desirous that the abolitionists should form a total agree with him. The advantages of bank subject are the same as mine."

The federalist thought that the definition of the U. States Senate? Are these men really desirous that the abolitionists should form a total agree with him. The advantages of bank subject are the same as mine."

The federalist thought that the definition of the U. States Senate? Are these men really desirous that the abolitionists should form a total agree with him. The advantages of bank subject are the same as mine."

The federalist thought that the definition of the U. States Senate? Are these men really desirous that the definition of the U. States Senate? Are these men really desirous that the definition of the U. States Senate? Are these men really desirous that the defini

All interests should be regarded according to their intrinsic value, and it is not perfectly plain to me, how the just interests of the free can be braces manifold legitimate interests. No one the slave to liberty. You may lawfully treat your own interests as subordinate to the interests of the slave, but you have no right to treat other men's interests as subordinate to those of the slave, without the consent of those of the slave, with the great mass believe slavery to be wrong, they do not believe immediate abolition to be right. And this, ton you have no right to treat other men's interests as subordinate to those of the slave, with the great mass believe slavery to be wrong, they do not believe immediate abolition to be right. And this, ton you have no right to treat other men's interests as subordinate to those of the slave, with the great mass believe slavery to be wrong, they do not believe immediate abolition to be right. And this, ton you have no right to treat other men's interests of the slave, with the great mass believe slavery to be wrong, they do not believe immediate abolition to be right. And this, ton you have no right to treat other men's interests of the slave, with the great mass believe slavery to be wrong, they do not believe immediate abolition to be right. And this, ton you have no right to treat other men's interests of the slave, with the great mass believe slavery to be wrong, they do not believe immediate abolition to be right. And this, ton you have no right to treat other men's interests. No one to live with less industry and eare the riminting and them, weigh is to be elected for our whole Union. This Union end and the collection to be right. And these movements, under existing is to be elected for our whole Union. This Union end and them, weigh limit to mind against a single objection to companies for them, weigh limit and you have no right to treat others. Charters are companies for their benefit. The course is advocates.

Notwithstanding him or cannot a men's interests. No wh 2. Because I think these movements, under existing rear great.

Again it is said that, by voting the third ticket of its promoters, a very few years ago, believed, felt, and and this is a paramount duty of abolitionists. To the progress of the anti-slavery cause has been great and rapid. It was beginning to be much respected when the state of the progress of the anti-slavery cause has been great and rapid. It was beginning to be much respected when the state of the constitutes slavery. The injustice is in exact protein that the progress of the anti-slavery cause has been great and rapid. It was beginning to be much respected when the state of the constitutes slavery. The injustice is in exact protein to the progress of the anti-slavery cause has been great and rapid. It was beginning to be much respected when the state of the constitutes slavery. The injustice is in exact prothis is a paramount duty of abolitionists. To this it may be replied, that it is but one way of carrying out those principles, and does by no carrying out those principles, and does by no began to operate. But when, being but a small fraction this is, deducting the expenses and losses, in means solve the question, which is the right in comparison, the anti-slavery men attempted to control proportion to the number of dollars issued for one.

two great parties now, must come to us, to give right of ruling, under the pretext of superior goodness and us the majority, before we can enforce our principles by law. How these are to be most ateadily and effectually won to our cause, is the great question?

decorous for any fraction, however pure, to assume the right of ruling, under the pretext of superior goodness and sanctity. But if such a party ultimately succeeds, it shares the fate of political Christianity through the world, and perficant democracy in America. In the very process of success, it draws into its vortex whole masses of venal and sortile hyperions that the control of the one, than of the other.

1st. From an almost infallible experience. We have lad two national banks. During their expectations and partical control of the one, than of the other.

1st. From an almost infallible experience. We have lad two national banks. During their expectations are the fate of political christianity through the world, and partical democracy in America. In the very process of success, it draws into its vortex whole masses of venal and sortile hyperions for any fraction, however pure, to assume the right of ruling, out that in the end much harm must be dong, seems to me clearly demonstrable.

1st. From an almost infallible experience. We have lad two national banks. During their experience in the result of success, it draws into its vortex whole masses of venal and partical christianity through the world, and partical christi

I am, dear sir, with great regard and respect, Washington County, Sept. 19, 1840.

For the Philanthropist. ABOLITIONISTS OF MOUNT VERNON.

Mount Vernon, Augt. 25th, 1840. Dr. Bailey,-Sir, I send you for publication,

J. J. STONE. Sec.

But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the re-election of Mr. Van
But in the event of the r

Yours as ever, E. WEED.

THE BANK ARGUMENT. For the Philanthropist

the question of the same page may be found a thorous is the most, or one of the most, wise and effectual means of propagating anti-slavery principles. But whether it is the most, or one of the most, wise and effectual means of propagating anti-slavery principles. This is a most monstrous evil, both in church and since Judget of the good of the most, which has been on hand since Judget of the question of the question, which has been on hand since Judget of the question of the q tual means of propagating anti-slavery principles may perhaps, well be questioned.

Before anti-slavery principles can be enforced by law, the abolitionists must have a majority of the people. Enough of those composing the twe great parties now, must come to us, to give

By forming a third party, say some—by keeping wholly aloof from the turbid strife of party, says another; by voting the third tucket, at this particular juncture, say others; by questioning the candidates and scattering our votes,

The state election takes place to-day. Much of the property of the land. Even now, a strong, or rather much used argument in favor of abolitionism is not to release the candidates and scattering our votes.

The state election takes place to-day. Much instead the candidates and scattering our votes, of abolitionism is not to release the candidates and scattering our votes.

The state election takes place to-day. Much instead the candidates and scattering our votes, of abolitionism is not to release the candidates and scattering our votes.

The state election takes place to-day. Much instead the candidates and scattering our votes, of states and scattering our votes, of abolitionism is not to release the correct the candidates and scattering our votes.

The state election takes place to-day. Much instead the candidates and bear the candidate and bear the candidates and scattering our votes.

The state election takes place to-day. Much instead the candidate and bear the candidate and bear the candidate and bear the candidate and state the candidate, and stoops to be strong, or rather much used argument in favor of abolitionism is not to release the candidate, and stoops to be abusing each other, the most vulgar pageants of that some of us should question the statem.

The state election takes place to-day. Much in the state election takes place to-day. Much in the state election takes place to-day. The state election takes place to-day. The state election takes place to day.

The state election takes place to heaving mass of interests and intelligence, which tain long enough, who would impuga the mothe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to which experience has brought of the slave's intethe same result to wh us, then is it true that figures, when properly have neard within a week, process, and a process is almost forgotten, and worked, may lie. Figures will show, as experted as in one evening. This is all ridiculous; the mourned more over the lamentable such a spirit, than desired. worked, may lie. Figures will show, as experted as in one evening increased, that the money will be working into the hands of bankers, and that at the closing up, there must be great difficulty in sational quite silly enough to resort to blows, when state our lecturers can find many particularly in the resort of such nonsense ought to be hissed from the resort of such nonsense ought to be hissed from the resort of such nonsense ought to be hissed from the resort of such nonsense ought to be hissed from the resort of such nonsense ought to be hissed from the resort of such nonsense ought to be hissed from the resort of such nonsense ought to be hissed from the lamentable in canvass in the West. In many particularly in the resort of such nonsense ought to be hissed from the lamentable in canvass in the West. In many particularly in the resort of such nonsense ought to be hissed from the lamentable in canvass in the west. In many particularly in sational particularly in the resort of such nonsense ought to be hissed from the lamentable in canvass in the west. In many particularly in sational particularly in closing up, there must be great difficulty in satnot quite silly enough to resort to blows, when state our lecturers can find no and isfying their demands. To renew them is like nor quite only cause the policy of the man who renews his strength a little bit of paper can so easily settle the mathave already resigned their com

mony of the Union do, in my opinion, require the agitation of some great fundamental princi- others of opposite political views. spirit and intention."-Letter to Berrien.

The multiplication of paper dollars, of course, gives an increased cost to every article of Amer- It is a fact worthy of notice, that nearly all can manufacture. This increased nominal the electioneering agents on whom the whig zeal, are seen uniting with infate cost enables the foreign manufaturer, who may party has depended in the present contest in this who, not content with infatual to beg speeches from such men as the their votes for either Van Buren and Johnson or roads and canals without pleasure, if I must at We need not wonder at this. These gentlemen, the same time behold hunger, nakedness and freed from the necessity of toil, living on the uncircument, when the same time behold hunger, nakedness and freed from the necessity of toil, living on the uncircument, when the same time behold hunger, nakedness and freed from the necessity of toil, living on the uncircument, when the same time behold hunger, nakedness and freed from the necessity of toil, living on the uncircument, when the necessity o the feeble hand of abolitionism. The power will have been wiehled by them for twelve be remembered, it is my counsel, not command, please of the democratic party hip and thigh and the feeble hand of abolitionism. The power will now be convention.

> For man, yours, ELI NICHCLS.

The power will nave lectured at Belmont, A-thens and Georgetown. At Athens and Georgetown. At Athens and Georgetown. At Athens and Georgetown. We had a very fair sample of all I have since heard on the side of whigh the forth hear less about "foreign interference" than the democratic party hip and thigh and the feeble hand of abolitionism. The power the remaining a few war. The hopes of each party for each party fo abolitionists at Hamilton. A better argument heretofore. But, do these slaveholders come than any of them, I have heard from Mr. Co- here for nothing? Would they take all this ven in a debate with Parish. They are our candidates for Congress. It is that he who has a trouble for a man whom they had not reason to jack-knife without a blade and a horse spavined believe committed to the support of their "pecujack-knife without a blade and a horse spavined believe committed to the support of their pecu-in every knee may trade on sight unseen with liar institution?" And what a claim too it will strong absurdate the multitude quite, believe the Lloydsville, Sept. 30th, 1840.

Those democrats, about the election season, get a peculiarly vivid glance at the sublime excellencies of independent moral action. But, enraptured as they are with laboratory and thus being any body, and so we cannot be worsted in turngive it a strength and permanence, the end of culiarly vivid glance at the sublime excellencies of indeunder the sublime excellencies o any body, and so we cannot be worsted in turn- give them on the whig party should it triumph! stroug absurdities that are broached. defection of the abolitionists, will be compelled cellencies. Though it seems to them a "a fruit good for to go with the abolitionists, or hazard the suc- food, and to be desired to make one wise," yet it is to tended for a mere specie currency." I incline speaker and claims not to have altered his course tended for a mere partyism has results be plainly forced. cess of their party. But the whigs being in the them forbidden fruit indeed. These men flatter to de- to this last opinion myself, though, as a since he sustained Jackson. I think he proved had to do with the pro-slavery policy of our results he plainly foresaw. But, the sales to the plainly foresaw.

of the abolitionists still defeat them in this last desperate struggle, to what source will they most naturally look for help? Will the helpless go to marks in my last were dictated by a supreme regard for the whig party, or for General Harrison, or that I expect vestigation of our duties as abolitionists; and when we cannot agree, we can at least be tolerant and charitable.

The question still comes up, who is right?—

We are right, say the third party men, because we disregard all interests but those of the slave. But this will not prove you right, unless you.

The question still comes up, who is right?—

We are right, say the third party men, because we disregard all interests but those of the slave. But this will not prove you right, unless you.

The question still comes up, who is right?—

We are right, say the third party men, because we disregard all interests but those of the slave. But this will not prove you right, unless you.

The question still comes up, who is right?—

We are right, say the third party men, because the country, and what the whig party, or for General Harrison, or that I expect any personal advantage from a change of administration, the will be greatly deceived. I have been an attentive observer of political course for popular favor, the will be greatly deceived. I have been an attentive observer of political course for popular favor, the will be greatly deceived. I have been an attentive observer of political course for popular favor, the will be greatly deceived. I have been an attentive observer of political course for popular favor, the will be greatly deceived. I have been an attentive observer of political course for popular favor, the will be greatly deceived. I have been an attentive observer of political course for popular favor, the will be greatly deceived. I have been an attentive observer of political course for popular favor, the will be greatly deceived. I have been an attentive observer of political course for one at units of the whigh party lated to convey the idea (though by no means show themselves more hostile than the demo-intentionally) that we were generally in favor of crais, who have had so little reason to be friend-3d. Paper money from its lightness, saves la- separate political organization, (this being the crats, who have had so little reason to be friendam perfectly acquainted with every member, and I do not know of more than one whose sentiments accord with the majority of the late convention at Hamilton. I know of none how- committee of arrangements, to attend the state on the point of dissolution. "This means ever whe have lost confidence in the ability in conventions, to be held at Worcester and Spring will ruin the country; its commerce will be pring. tegrity and uprightness of the Editor. Many field, Massachusetts, on the 6th, 7th, 8th and trated; its industry paralysed." "If that pe of me subscribers therefore will still continue to take the Philanthropist, notwithstanding they may disapprove strongly of some of the meas-

> hundred or upwards of abolitionists in this took it for granted that they were chiefly polit- fluence." county (Harrison) who had no representation in ical in their character, and accordingly addres- Notwithstanding all this, from the establishment the convention, I question much if there are over twelve, if that many, who are in favor of a separate organization.

Yours truly,

THE PHILANTHROPIST.

EDITED BY G. BAILEY, JR.

CINCINNATI, Tuesday Morning, October, 13, 1840.

ahoga, who before the Harrison excitement, we violence, has only given a sterner tone to our country, is to be traced to other sources:

say others. Among all, there seems to be a slight deaven of intolerance, and a disposition to pass an interpretate of the highest order. But it suffers, as all other good causes have suffered—from the vagaries of the highest order. The exections of Land we have denoted the multiple of the democratic stamp tells his hearers that beits advocates. The exactions of I and we have done in- Banks not only lend three dollars for one, but of the democratic stamp tells his hearers that be- draws nigh, what with the tumults of the mul-On all these questions it seems me, that we finite mischief in enterprises of benevolence. We forbade they charge compound interest. If bank char- fore the stern glance of a single honest democrate titude, the watchings-out for tokens, the gnaw-

ter. All that we have heard of these political olitionists in some places will Mr. Rankin certainly knows that Gen. Harrison is pledged against a protective tariff. If great questions are not required to excite great or done detrimental to the content of the cont rison is pledged against a protective tariff. If great questions are not required to excite great or done detrimental to the interests of multitudes, and that Americans politics are fast ty.* Men, who hitherton he knows it not, let him look into some south-ern paper. "Good faith and the peace and har-ern paper. "Good faith and the peace and har-becoming flat and cotemptible for the want of tion of the slave, have ern paper. "Good faith and the peace and harmony of the Union do, in my opinion, require becoming flat and cotemptible for the want of tion of the slave, have fraternally at the agitation of some great fundamental princi-

WORTHY OF REMARK.

operate more clearly to the overthrow of our ding states. Why the democrats have not happen since directed the energies of his post we are very sure it is not from any special horror to the study of politics, that they may be qualified doubtless to instruct the working men of country is suffering. Ohio, whom it were presumption to suppose ca-P. S. Returning from Hamilton, I debated passed by thought. The din and dust of conflict with the state of conflict with the stat will work badly for abolitionists. We shall

Gen. Harri- in passing the Black Law because they thought The canvass which terminated in his class But it is said we must do right, regardless of consequences—and with this sentiment I fully accord. Wherever the light of truth may lead and anoment of the cause of liberty. Do not trust your accord. Wherever the light of truth may lead there would I follow regardless of the devil.—But I would not plunge into Egyptian darkness, there would I follow regardless of the devil.—I was a man rights, or the rights of my fellow men upon the rights of my fellow men up the receipt of the news from Kentucky that the democratic rule. Even when the content Dear Sir. -I observed in your paper some. He would not care a pin, if the Black law were over, and on every side the evidences of a manufacture of the state of t time since, that a writer from this place had in-

We shall know in a few months.

POSTPONEMENT, IMPOLITIC AND WRONG.

9th of the present month; or, in the event of our cy succeed, the liberties of the goods will being unable to attend, to furnish our views in gone; they will become the victims of condin writing. The communication not specifying stock-jobbers will own them; the independent Notwithstanding there are, perhaps, three the particular object of the conventions, we of the government will sink under foreign sed them a letter on the political bearings of ab- ment of the Union till now, population olition. We have since learned, however, that gone on steadily increasing, in the same they were to be of a more general character, it amidst all vicissitudes; wealth has been being designed to have a general consideration mulated with unexampled rapidity; comments of all the subjects which now particularly internal and external, has flourished beyond concern abolitionists. As we are anxious, calculation; and, so far as the action of the before the presidential election to present to eral government, apart from the influence of our readers certain views embodied in that the Slave Power, is concerned, the people and letter, and as time will not allow us to await the are just as free, and as firmly secured in the report of the proceedings of the conventions, the joyment of their liberties, as at any former chairman of the committee to whom we addres- riod.

threatens to quench that genial enthusiasm try and economy, necessarily called into which so long has been the unfailing source of under a system, which secures to labor i anti-slavery action. The man who once made reward; on exemption from oppressive the slave's interests his own, and felt in his tion; and on the fact, that we have a so as abolitionists, may rightfully disagree; and let it be here borne in mind, that as abolitionists we wear no party collars, nor do we submit to be whipt into the ranks of any of these great disjoint of our friends. That man has been cap whipt into the ranks of our friends. That man has been cap whipt into the ranks of our friends. That man has been cap

whipt into the ranks of our friends. That man has been cap
whipt into the ranks of our friends. That man has been cap
whipt into the ranks of any of these great disjoints of our friends. That man has been cap
whipt into the ranks of any of these great disjoints of our friends. That man has been cap
whipt into the ranks of any of these great disjoints of our friends. That man has been cap
whipt into the ranks of any of these great disjoints of our friends. That man has been cap
whipt into the ranks of any of these great disjoints of our friends. That man has been cap
whipt into the ranks of any of these great disjoints of our friends. That man has been cap
whipt into the ranks of any of these great disjoints of our friends. That man has been cap
whipt into the ranks of any of these great disjoints of our friends. That man has been cap whipt into the ranks of any of these great disjoint received from the highest conscience. We forbate they charge compound interest. If bank char they charge compound interest. If bank char
there as abolitionists we should be continued. Let any man take the present contest titude, the watchings-out for tokens, the gname of a single honest democrat will quail in dismay; as core of bank aristocrats will quail in dismay; as core of bank aristocrats will quail in dismay; as core of bank aristocrats will quail in dismay; as core of bank aristocrats will quail in dismay; as core of bank aristocrats will quail in dismay; as core of bank aristocrats will quail in dismay; as core of bank aristocrats will quail in dismay; as core of bank aristocrats will quail in dismay; as core of bank aristocrats will quail in d

found indulging the most rancorous

ticket piedged to support the curse of Can it be possible that all these me honest? I canno! believe it. Having in their cooler moments to consider the bility incurred in the act of voting, if made up their minds to support a slave

The field of battle is not favorable to duce. Hence, where no great principle really involved, in the absence of the decitement they alone can create, cries dark suspicions, perverse logic, paleable i hood are resorted to, till the leaders thomas Terrible, doubtless, were the forebodies the democrat, when John Adams success Washington A monarchy, an order of legislatures he would his faith was too strong for facts; the country was ruined, and he knew it. Every more ding election till Mr. Monroe's term, was course the pivot on which turned the sales of the country; each party very naturally him period, has been signalized as the critical or the one which was to, decide the fate of then tion. The usual watch-words of party ber been sounded out in tones so alarming, the stranger unfamiliar with our customs, cou We lately received an invitation from the hardly resist the conviction that the Union w of partisans in the present political canvass feel comparatively unmoved amidst the evils which now beset us and threaten to

It may be said that the present contest is touth it, a national bank, and the collection, cal question of slavery. agrees for the last ten years clearly demon-er.

Overtrading from excessive issues: Fluctuations in the currency:

Impairment of the purity of our elections:

overnment: Corruption of our public men:

Sumjection to foreign influence: Encroachments on the equal rights of the peo- like the brute that perisheth.

thigs on the present administration, are, Addisordered currency: "

Inequality in the exchanges: Loss of confidence in the business commu-

and work corruption throughout the body pol- ment has denounced as piracy.

es on the policy of the other. Other and which had established perpetual slavery. eems to me, with a view to effect.

For example, it is alleged against the whigs, very. hat they are federalists, aristocrats, enemies of monopolies, seeking power simply that they may our example as a free people. egislate for the benefit of the monied classes. profession. Or should he scruple to believe all demands the price of its patronage. besigns of each. I can see a radical difference nation.

the currency.

deges. Still even he will not deny, that in all complexion, &c. &c.

On the other hand, in relation to the sub-trea-While the whig urges that this policy will ject the merchant and traveller to inconvenie, lessen industry, and impair commerce, he hardly contend that it will inflict a fatal and on the business of the country, or that enterprise of the American character will not mount all obstacles from this source, as it uamly has overcome all other difficulties. will he pretend, that its effects will be apid devolopment. So slight is the contion of government generally with the facul-

Let us examine unis manuer.

The evils the intended prevention or will probably be long ere its policy in this particular be felt deeply or extensively * As to systematically righted in the probably be felt deeply or extensively * As to systematically righted in the probably be felt deeply or extensively * As to systematically righted in the probably be felt deeply or extensively * As to systematically righted in the probably be felt deeply or extensively * As to systematically righted in the probably be felt deeply or extensively * As to systematically righted in the probably be felt deeply or extensively * As to systematically righted in the probably be probably be felt deeply or extensively * As to systematically righted in the probably be probably be felt deeply or extensively * As to systematically righted in the probably be prob ticular be felt deeply or extensively.* As to systematically violated its sanctity without law. cal party-organizations, deeming them necessation of slavery—in the dangerous power the sub-treasury throws. the dangerous power the sub-treasury throws It now threatens an enactment, prohibiting the rily corrupt and corrupting. Soon after the sub-treasury throws throw throws throw the sub-treasury throws throw the sub-treasury throws throw the sub-treasury throw throws throw nicket. I am no partisant, and partisant. I am no partisant, and partisant. I am no partisant, and partisant. It was under this impression, that the listened to patiently by partisans. It was under this impression, that the listened to patiently by partisant. The listened to patiently by partisant by partisant by the listened to patiently by partisant. The listened to patiently by partisant by the listened to patiently by the listened to be a list by the listened to be a listened to be a listened to be a liste Union, to watch him. Should it be found on our features of the slave system. experience that the power it confers is really so It has passed laws, denying the right of trial Liberty-ticket. His letter published to-day on policed.

Interpolation formidable, Americans are not so found of a more by jury to a certain class of persons in some of our first and second pages, shows him to be a not a fact, then, that the real subject in nied tyranny, neither would they be so blind to the free states. Orbidding them to tend to the free states. not a lact, then, that are persons in some or our first and second pages, a between the two parties is the currency? nied tyranny, neither would they be so blind to the free states; forbidding them to testify against thorough going, almost violation with the property of the currency. their own interests, as not to rectify the evil. a white man; imposing upon them the degrading that General Harrison is a worshipper in their own interests, as not to rectify the evil. a white man; imposing upon them the degrading that General Harrison is a worshipper in the degrading deny that others may be urged for The inference I would draw from this view is, ding necessity of proving their right to freedom; the temple of the bloody god of slavery, he yet excluding them from the benefits of the company that there is no such pressing necessity of rem-or that the edying these evils immediately, as can warrant mon school system; and punishing citizens of has totally changed his principles since 1838.

The concerning the currency, and as connect the postponement of the great moral and political political concerning the currency, and as connect the postponement of the great moral and political contents.

of the country, the discussions in the whig and democratic parties, briefly exhibit the the appointment of its own creatures.

democratic party is energed with an a left, in strengthening the hands of General Harleft democratic party is energed with an a left, in strengthening the hands of General Harleft democratic party is energed with an all left, in strengthening the hands of General Harleft democratic party is energed with an all left in strengthening the hands of General Harleft democratic party is energed with an all left in strengthening the hands of General Harleft democratic party is energed with an all left in strengthening the hands of General Harleft democratic party is energed with an all left democratic party is energed with a left democratic party is energy in the left democratic party in the left democratic party is energy in the left democratic party in the left democratic party is energy in the left democratic party in the left democratic party is energy in the left democratic party in the left democratic party is energy in the left democratic party in the left democratic party is energy in the left democratic party in the left democratic party is energy in the left democratic party in the left democratic party is energy in the left democratic party in the rison should be be elected. An able writer, added at their discretion intensely selfish, ruthlessly unjust, boundlessly slave-state, and imprisoned or otherwiwise for our auniversary at Granville in 1838, and thus madly leaped from her sphere to participate the people to be regulated at their discretion in tensely selfish, ruthlessly unjust, boundlessly slave-state, and imprisoned or otherwiwise for our auniversary at Granville in 1838, and which was published in the federal governance of the currency—with gives any indications of grief that woman has dressing a letter to George McDuffie, thus end which was published in the federal governance of the currency—with gives any indications of grief that woman has dressing a letter to George McDuffie, thus end which was published in the federal governance of the currency—with gives any indications of grief that woman has dressing a letter to George McDuffie, thus end which was published in the federal governance of grief that woman has dressing a letter to George McDuffie, thus end which was published in the federal governance of grief that woman has dressing a letter to George McDuffie, thus end which was published in the federal governance of grief that woman has dressing a letter to George McDuffie, thus end which was published in the federal governance of grief that woman has dressing a letter to George McDuffie, thus end which was published in the federal governance of grief that woman has dressing a letter to George McDuffie, thus end which was published in the grief that woman has dressing a letter to George McDuffie, thus end which was published in the grief that woman has dressing a letter to George McDuffie, thus end which was published in the grief that woman has dressing a letter to George McDuffie, thus end which was published in the grief that woman has dressing a letter to George McDuffie, thus end which we have the grief that woman has dressing a letter to George McDuffie, the grief that woman has dressing a letter to George McDuffie, the grief that w ambitious, and completely irresponsible. Such mal-treated them. which was the country a sound cur, more dangerous to the liberties of the people of sound to the country a sound cur, more dangerous to the liberties of the people of sound to the country a sound cur, more dangerous to the liberties of the people of sound to the country a sound cur, more dangerous to the liberties of the people of sound to the country a sound cur, more dangerous to the liberties of the people of sound to the country as sound cur, more dangerous to the liberties of the people of sound to the country as sound cur, more dangerous to the liberties of the people of sound to the country as sound cur, more dangerous to the liberties of the people of sound to the country as sound cur, more dangerous to the liberties of the people of sound to the country as sound cur, more dangerous to the liberties of the people of sound to the country as sound cur, more dangerous to the liberties of the people of sound to the country as sound cur, more dangerous to the liberties of the people of sound to the liberties of the people of the people of the liberties of the li more dangerous to the liberties of the people of sons, and sold them into remediless bondage. The former, in the prosecution of its the U. States, their trade and labor, and the It has demanded from sovereign states at the r, has put down the United States' bank, independence of their government, than either a north, the surrender of certain of their citizens, bank or sub-treasury. For, with far more limin in order to be tried by slaveholding tribunals, be conferred on them by all the demagogues of the teemand, through its head, declared war ited means of mischief, the last is already, and charged with no other offence, than that of decies to stan the tide of the last is already. banking institutions. The latter the first would be indirectly, placed under healed by the base performance! If the latter the first would be indirectly, placed under healed by the base performance! What man of correct principle and taste, will be speech carried demonstration and conviction to the mineral speech carried demonstration and carried demonstration and carried demonstration and ca overthrow the dominant party, not surely vy responsibilities to the people. But, the Slave- man. overtime with a view to perpetuate its policy, or to adopt to state or section of the law to which to the law to the law to wh de system of state-bank deposites, but to charity, has no other law, than the unappealable will citizens, guiltless in the eye of the law to which country, what party has not sold itself to do the guilty of the monopolists themselves.

will specify the following.

abject and perpetual bondage, regarding them as and at the North attempted to effect the same absolute property, that may be bought, sold, object by instigating mob-violence.

Employment the public revenues in private States universally in the guilt of aiding and abet. ations of slavery. resentation in Congress, based on such property, visional seizure and sale as shives, of a certain On the other hand, the evils charged by the slaves wherever found within the limits of the are invested with all the rights of citizens. bondman.

The establishment of a system, which must and the territory of Florida, and of tolerating state. nower, paralyze dustry, damage commerce, with the foreign slave-trade, which the govern- a free state, whose only crime was, that he had notified exact.

It has procured the sanction of the nation It has created and kept up a war, which has one: such are the evils which each party char- vailing on it to admit into the Union, states of dollars.

the laboring classes, supporters of oppressive eyes of the world, and impaired the influence of of war.

in their turn, they charge the democrats, with a more than any other single cause, induced gress. scaled hostility to the rights of property; with a among us an alarming insensibility to the claims determination on the part of their leader to usurp of justice and the vital principles of good govern-

ides, that should any one dissent from the wild tures of its will, punishing by exclusion or disecusations of the democrat, he is at once set missal any who may have questioned its usurplaws as a bank man, a whig in disguise, if not ed pretogatives, and making base servility to its

the whig says of his antagonist, he is forthwith It has thus given us nearly all our presidents becounced as a loco-foco, a Van Buren man in and vice presidents, and the speakers of the the Slave-Power on this nation. In full view of proceeds inguise, if not profession. Having never be- house of representatives, all of whom are com- their aggravated enormity, I, for one, hold myonged to either party, however, I shall take the pelled, ere they are elected, to yield to it pledges self excusable, if, in the question in dispute beberty of believing so much as I see proper of of their friendship, and through whom it exerts tween the two parties, I can see nothing that is party, there remains for us but one course, and t the representations made of the doctrines and a controlling influence over the affairs of the not entirely insignificant when compared with to withdraw from all parties, and to sustain NO MAN not entirely insignificant when compared with FOR PRESIDENT of the United States, or for Government of the United States, or for Gover etween them on the subject of the currency, It has determined to a great extent the legislathe satisfactory proof has yet been presented tion of the country, regardless of the interests ing or preventing a national bank. It is said CLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE.—(Has your following officers were chosen. Lucinda Swain, presiomy mind, that either party deliberately designs of free labor; at one time establishing a tariff, that opposition by voting will avail nothing:

that opposition by voting will avail nothing:

candidate done so, Mr. Wade! No—he is a worshipper in the temple of the bloody god of slavery—so you condend the temple of the temple of the bloody god of slavery—so you condend the temple of the bloody god of slavery—so you condend the temple of the bloody god of slavery—so you condend the temple of the bloody god of slavery—so you condend the temple of the bloody god of slavery—so you condend the temple of the bloody god of slavery—so you condend the temple of the bloody god of slavery—so you condend the temple of the bloody god of slavery—so you condend the temple of the bloody god of slavery—so you condend the temple of the temple enslave the country—that the whigs are the calculated, if not designed, to cripple the commemies of the working classes, or that the de- merce of the free states; at another, abolishing the other interests of the country. It is suffinocratic executive aspires to make himself a it, at the hazard, if not with the intention, of breaking up their manufactories; passing laws, The evils then we must consiser, are those for the advantage of the slaveholder, to carry Theh are connected with the different policies into effect a mere clause of compact in the conthe two parties respecting the great question stitution between the several states, and which confers no power of legislation on the federal In regard to a national bank, let us concede government; excluding a portion of our countryits tendencies would be such as its opponent men from service in the militia, because of their kelihood they would be very slowly developed.

It has usurped power over the diplomacy of the for a long period there might coexist with the nation; urging claims for compensation for mains for us to set them a right example and, trodden, degraded slave, of this land of the poor, down the nation; urging claims for compensation for mains for us to set them a right example and, trodden, degraded slave, of this land of the poor, down the nation; urging claims for compensation for the diplomacy of the mains for us to set them a right example and, trodden, degraded slave, of this land of the poor, down the nation is the poor of the diplomacy of the ment of the ment of the diplomacy of the ment of the diplomacy of the ment the an institution a high state of prosperity, slave-property, so called, in such a tone as to by our acts, confirm our words. I cannot give (Amen!) Though a man may be right on the tariff, the generate unfriendly feelings between two powmy vote to Gen. Harrison or Martin Van Buren, led comparative exemption from the evils mengenerate unfriendly feelings between two powmy vote to Gen. Harrison or Martin Van Buren, led comparative exemption from the evils mengenerate unfriendly feelings between two powmy vote to Gen. Harrison or Martin Van Buren, led comparative exemption from the evils menwithout sustaining the whole of the avowed polwithout sustaining the whole of the avowed polled comparative exemption from the evils menwithout sustaining the whole of the avowed polled comparative exemption from the evils menwithout sustaining the whole of the avowed polled comparative exemption from the evils menwithout sustaining the whole of the avowed polled comparative exemption from the evils menwithout sustaining the whole of the avowed polled comparative exemption from the evils menwithout sustaining the whole of the avowed polled comparative exemption from the evils menwithout sustaining the whole of the avowed polled comparative exemption from the evils menwithout sustaining the whole of the avowed polled comparative exemption from the evils menevil not provide the evil not prov the of the United States' bank. The inference cious negociations for the reclamation of fugiicy of one of them, by the undivided force and in ANY THING. Suck a man has no principle, no deliver to the reclamation of fugiicy of one of them, by the undivided force and in ANY THING. Suck a man has no principle, no deliver to recipitate in the reclamation of fugiicy of one of them, by the undivided force and in ANY THING. Suck a man has no principle, no deliver to recipitate in the reception of the principles and their necessary to be a succession to the reception of the principles and their necessary to be a succession to the reception of the principles and their necessary to be a succession to the reception of the principles and their necessary to be a succession to the reception of the principles and their necessary to be a succession to the reception of the principles and their necessary to be a succession to the reception of the principles and their necessary to be a succession to the reception of the principles and their necessary to be a succession to the reception of the principles and their necessary to be a succession to the reception of the principles and their necessary to be a succession to the reception of the principles and their necessary to be a succession to the reception of the principles and their necessary to be a succession to the reception of the principles and the reception of the principles and their necessary to be a succession to the reception of the principles and their necessary to be a succession to the reception of the principles and their necessary to be a succession to the reception of the principles and the reception of the principles are the reception of the Tould draw from this is, that the question in tive slaves; neglecting, as we have reason to beinfluence of my vote. But, as a part of the pollieve for fear of risking its neglecting as we have reason to beinfluence of my vote. But, as a part of the pollieve for fear of risking its neglecting of the counties of Wayne. Heary lieve, for fear of risking its peculiar interests, to support the evils I have named to such an institution is not so urgent, lieve, for fear of risking its peculiar interests, to support the evils I have named to such an institution is not so urgent, lieve, for fear of risking its peculiar interests, to support the evils I have named to such an institution is not so urgent, lieve, for fear of risking its peculiar interests, to support the evils I have named to such an institution is not so urgent, lieve, for fear of risking its peculiar interests, to lieve, for fear of risking its peculiar interests, to lieve, for fear of risking its peculiar interests, to lieve, for fear of risking its peculiar interests, to lieve, for fear of risking its peculiar interests, to lieve, for fear of risking its peculiar interests, to lieve, for fear of risking its peculiar interests, to lieve, for fear of risking its peculiar interests, to lieve, for fear of risking its peculiar interests, to lieve, for fear of risking its peculiar interests, to lieve, for fear of risking its peculiar interests, to lieve, for fear of risking its peculiar interests, to lieve, for fear of risking its peculiar interests, to lieve, for fear of risking its peculiar interests, to lieve, for fear of risking its peculiar interests, to lieve, for fear of risking its peculiar interests, to lieve, for fear of risking its peculiar interests, to lieve, for fear of risking its peculiar interests. 4 other questions for a time may not prop-Ttake precedence of it-that, without vital fully vexatious question, which involves a large my country and sinning against God. by to the interests of the republic, its settle- portion of the territory of a free state: and submight be postponed for a considerable pe- jecting our commerce to no small disadvantages. by refusing, for no adequate reason, to recognize

> It has created offices in the South, which are travelling in a stage coach. not demanded for any purposes of utility, and are a dead weight upon the government.

It has forced declarative resolutions in the

It has sought to compel Congress to overthrow the constitutional bulwarks of the free states, by guarantying to the slaveholder the right to hold his slaves within their limits.

of trade, compared with that of other causes, fects trade, so injuriously, as it is change in its action.

Let us examine this matter. Let us which are continually acting upon them, that it It has attempted to establish by law a censor-on on the question of the appropriate a pro-sla- into the hands of the executive, I remark, that testimony of colored men in the courts martial tation of the third party-project, we are credibly on of the act of supporting a pro-sla- there would be twenty-six sovereign, states and there would be twenty-six sovereign states and of the United States, thus forcing the sanction informed, he became one of its strongest advo-

be removed from the land of their birth-from the light actual slaveholding community, but the sage of laws in the face of their own constituof the democrat, would tend to such evils slaveholding spirit which, fostered by prejudice tions, to prevent their citizens from assembling Releaser, to a land of ignorance and superstition—a and interest, pervades the whole Union. Among together peaceably to discuss the subject of sla- land of pestilence and death, what party has interposed to other evils with which it is justly chargeable, I very; and for the suppression of the liberty of speech and of the press, and by mur-

It holds a sixth part of our fellow countrymen. It has destroyed to a great degree freedom enemies of its power; visiting them with law-It has burthened the nation with the guilt of less punishment, should they be found on purpo-

in his possession a few anti-slavery tracts.

Such, we repeat, is the real subject in dis- to the extension of the crime of slavery, by pre- drawn from the national treasury thirty millions in the heterogen

It has enslaved our politicians, emasculated favor our literature, fettered the press and gagged the pulpit at the North.

Such are some of the grievances inflicted by cient for me to know, that the people of the United States are committing a gross blunder in policy, and a flagrant violation of moral princi- ged to no candidate, will hold the balance of power beple, in sustaining the claims of candidates bound tween contending factions."

"There is another course which abolitionists may follow: hand and foot by the Slave-Power. The best way to convince them of the fact is, for those burying their talent in the earth, and surely no friend of the suffering, bleeding sirve, will dare answer such a who believe it, to refuse, by their alliance to charge to his God or his conscience." sanction such conduct, and by their vote to pro- "What to us is the elevation of any man to office, only as Harrison, is quite amusing. test against it. What is wrong in them would LIBERTY AND JUSTICE HAVE GAINED PRIENTS!

How the South understand it.

"A political discussion was soon under way, hetween a Kentuckian on the one hand, and a "Buckeye" on the they great men, but in the greatness of their stupi ther, which for a time seemed to bid fair to issue in an Senate of the United States against the right of discussion on the subject of slavery.

Senate of the United States against the right of discussion on the subject of slavery.

The Buckeye," who was the more moderate of the two, to gorge the rapacity of great men. Let the abolitionists of the United States show, to the world, that American liberties of manking party—in short, to Martin Van Buren, for as well as Arnold Buffum, and Dr. W. P. Bennett. &c.

N. B. All A. S. Societies in Indiana, are requested. withdrew from the contest, leaving his Kentucky neighbor, the last word and the threatened quarrel to himself.

"Well," said the Kentuckian after brooding over the great men, but that it burns an unquenchable fire, in the great men, but that it burns an unquenchable fire, in the self defend them by other and far surer means. She rests numbers, male and female—date of their formster. matter-for a few moments, "there's this about it—if Harrison is elected. Harry Clay will have the entire control of him, and he is a true friend of the South—and if Van "In conclusion, your committee the south of the south of

MR. WADE'S LETTER.

the postponement of the great moral and politithe free states for extending aid or charity to "But, have not you changed?" Not our printhe postponement of the great moral and politislaves escaping from their masters. ciples. We hold no principle now that we have when he knows the procession with the two parties, the case of the respective modes of policy of the case of the respective modes of the presence and doings of t erests of the "dear people," ever risked a single ballot in behalf of the slave, has been the butt of ridicule, with any influence, which Mr. Clay's counsel and te would be of more value than all the benefits pretended to a standing topic for censure, with those papers may exert upon the coming administration—the Aboli gies to stop the tide of reform, when there was hope of pation of ladies in miserable party-glorifications. this momentous issue, cannot be calculated. His gr he driven from his country and the graves of his fathers, of the whig party, friend Wade?) - If a low and despi- badge mania which is leading some of our fair tion, and to leave us to work out, and sturbed and unmo The design then of the whig party is, to re- By the Slave-Power I mean, however, not onof civilization, and the way of salvation by a crucified my, seething, noisy, drinking melanges of party! its effects upon the great religious hodies of the Northgive in return? Alas! this not the sphere of party.

"Finally, where is the party which is not the grader to ike the brute that perisheth.

It has implicated the people of the people of the United

The defined that he data and the defined that he data and the people of the United

The defined that he data and the defined that he defined that he defined the people for no other reason, than that he data and men like them, who stand up putting forth their confidence in the hated rival in mously,

The them declare that he said to make that he defined th of the country by a vast money-power, &c. obtained a constitutional warrant for seizing its class of persons who, in some of the free states, who can gainsay it,) how ought we as abolitionists, to

Union, and engaged the whole power of the It has abridged the right of locomotion in the of our country at this time, and the important inquiry government, if necessary, to crush the rising persons of those, who are known as the open comes up, How ought abolitionists to act as citizens; and nah Osborne, and Harnah M. Spillard, be appointed said liands will be strength

nver the president with an alarming increase of the domestic slave-trade, the same in principle It has publicly whipped an innocent citizen of our suffrages only to such friends of human rights, as we those who confer on them political power. A subject of sion, and that it is destructive of the morals, happiness, not have appeared. tion are preferred, chiefly, as it lit tends constantly to degrade labor, by malien, discontented, ignorant and depraved, have

king it in one half the Union the badge of sla ling every provocation that men are hour following the autocrat of Russia, or a slave of the Sultan, is, equalbelieve that it is the bounder duty of every Christian feling every provocation that men are hour following the surface of the Sultan, is, equally with the entightened citizen, embraced in the following the ling is the surface of the Sultan, is, equally with the entightened citizen, embraced in the following the surface of the Sultan, is, equally with the entightened citizen, embraced in the following the surface of the Sultan, is, equally with the entightened citizen, embraced in the following the surface of the Sultan, is, equally with the entightened citizen, embraced in the following the surface of the Sultan, is, equally with the entightened citizen, embraced in the following the surface of the Sultan is the surface of the sultan in the sult their annie control that men can have, to create domestic convulsions in times of peace, and strengthen the armies of an invader in times of the world, and impaired the influence of the cample as a free people.

It has corrupted our republicanism, and, nore than any other single cause, induced the insulated sovereign states.

In gevery provocation that men can have, to create their apple charge, to raise her warning thing, a make in this our beloved country, to raise her warning thing, a make in this our beloved country, to raise her warning thing, a make in this our beloved country, to raise her warning thing, a make in this our beloved country, to raise her warning thing, a make in this our beloved country, to raise her warning thing, a make in this our beloved country, to raise her warning thing, a make weep or streams as mothers, wives, sisters, and daughters, we can no longularities for our own liberty, and no recann people as mothers, wives, sisters, and daughters, we can no longularities for our own liberty, and no recann people as mothers, wives, sisters, and daughters, we can no longularities for General Harrison and John Tyler, friend Wade!)—This breaking up of party-connections will no doubt be to many 'as the giving up of the ghost,' but read and reveiation teach us, that it is better to do right doubt be to many 'as the giving up of the ghost,' but read and reveiation teach us, that it is better to do right doubt be to many 'as the giving up of the ghost,' but read and reveiation teach us, that it is better to do right doubt be to many 'as the giving up of the ghost,' but read and reveiation teach us, that it is better to do right doubt be to many 'as the giving up of the ghost,' but read and reveiation teach us, that it is better to do right doubt be to many 'as the giving up of the ghost,' but read and the Declaration of Independence, and the country to constant this our liberty, and that this our relations of independence of thing, and that the doubt be to many as the giving up of the ghost,' bu It has insulted sovereign states, by prevailing that to trample on the right of petitions, and to set at the congress to refuse reception to their resolutions on the subject of slavery in the Dietrical of against American liberty—whether the deed be done by tions on the subject of slavery in the District of a Webster, a Clay, a Van Buren, or e Harrison;—and, in a lawful and peaceful manner, to bring about the extinction of slavery in our country. Therefore most firm Columbia, and to decline hearing or referring a whether it be done by openly attacking or by basely shrinkhe purse and the sword for sinister purposes.

It has assigned to dispose of offices under the protest of the sovereign state of Massachusetts

Therefore, whether it be done by openly attacking or by basely shrinkly relying on Divine aid in the accomplishment of our objects, we hereby identify ourselves with the Anti-Slaagainst the admission of any elevertate into the against the admission of any slave-state into the less because his fetters are rivotted by the open viothe less because his fetters are rivotted by the open vioother, from henceforth to cast in our mite both of spiritual

> Mr. Wade then goes into a brief argument against a third political organization, in which he expresses himself in very strong terms, and then them. I cannot bring myself to support a ticket nor of the State, or for Congress, or for the General Aspledged to uphold them, for the sake of procurpractice to the procurpractic to the procurpractic to the sake of pro have we to do with men, high in fuvor and power, only and Harrisons, when they understand our principles, will co-incide and act with us. But, how long must the friends of the slave, indulge great men in their ignorance of the clearest principles of humanity? Are great men privileged to be ignorant of mere elementary truths? Is their ignorance of the truth, that the swarthy African is their ignorance of the truth, that the swarthy African is ample means? I am amazed, said, Mr. L., that any son of this secretion of the Union, of the ever gallant and chivalence of the truth, the truth of this secretion of the Union, of the service sentiment without a division of the state of the same and the political bucksters of the day, that they must look to the building to do took to the political bucksters of the day, that they must look to the building to day, (Monday) the 9th of the out of slavery, rather than to their own right arms and ample means? I am amazed, said, Mr. L., that any son of look A. M.

As business of unusual importance in which every about the same and the political bucksters of the day, that they must look to the will pursuant to adjoint to adjoint the following the same and the political bucksters of the day, that they must look to the will pursuant to adjoint to adjoint the same and the political bucksters of the globe, should now be tout by the political bucksters of the day, that they must look to the will pursuant to adjoint to adjoint the same and the political bucksters of the day, that they must look to the will pursuant to adjoint to adjoint the same and the political bucksters of the day, that they must look to the will pursuant to adjoint to adjoint the same and the political bucksters of the day, that they must look to the will pursuant to adjoint the will pursuant to adjoint the same and the political bucksters of the day, that they must look to the will pursuant to adjoint the same and the political bucksters of the day, that they must look to the will pursuant to adjoint the will pursuant to adjoint the province that the same and the politi W. H. Burleigh relates the following amusing circumstance which happened while he was translational to the same protection of just alrous South as service sentiment without a man, and as such entitled to the same protection of just alrous South as service sentiment without alrous south as service sentiment without alrous South as al

Such were Mr. Wade's sentiments in 1838. ren-party has taken great pains to forward the We think he will yet be sorry for his letter of 1840. What is to be gained to the cause of hu- ed into wrong hands, - Hamilton Intelligen man rights by wholesale abuse of one party, and Our communication did not alter "the appear unfair attempts to excuse the other? Prominent rance of the matter" materially, except that if advocates of abolition ought to maintain an atti- contradicted almost every statement made bu tude of impartiality, and not sink the philan- the reverend gentleman. The editor of the Inthropist in the partisan.

WOMEN IN INDIANA.

the case of the respective modes of policy of the elect to office; and in some instances procured to the procured to the procured to the case of the respective modes of policy of the elect to office; and in some instances procured tionist. We have changed only in our views, at great political gatherings. A brother education with the discussions in the whigh and democratic parties, briefly exhibit the appointment of its own creatures. of the country, the displayed on this nation by the Slave-Pow- It has prescribed to some of these states, and demanded at their hands, the kind of laws nefortunately Mr. Wade's change is from good to gious paper, that we know of, has made any fluence of Henry Clay, the great abolition-quel-The democratic party is charged with an a
The democratic party i from the time when the abolition cry was first this source. "What party, in all its boundless devotion to the in- heard, the quiet, becoming action of woman in the country in all its boundless devotion to the inwhich now connive at or encourage the particiry, what party has not sold itself to do the guilty—(no exception to these sweeping charges in favor now about to report, than for the banner-and-upon them to observe the compromises of the Constituladies to mix themselves up in the sweaty, stea- lested, our own destiny. The results of that wise and

For the Philanthropist. Female Anti-Slavery Society in Indiana. Economy, Wayne Co., Ias

Impairment of the purity of our elections.

Impairment of the purity of our elections.

Interference with the independent action of interference with the independent action of or nearly three millions of immortal beings, in of thought and speech and action of it, and their senction of it. ing was called to order by Hannah M. Spillard.

On motion Lucinda Swain was called to the chair, and his large that no slave owner can be admitmortgaged, willed, whipped, driven, worked

The sin one instance murdered a minister of lowest vices, the most grovelling prejudices, or the grosslowest vices, the most growest vices and the prejudices, or the growslowest vices, the most growest vices and the prejudices, or the growslowest vices, and the prejudices of the growslowest vices and the growslowest vices an

er and denunciation."

Society, to be known by the name of the Economy days and Clay drowned in the tears of the NOTHERS of this be a true likeness of our organized parties (and wayne County Female Anti-Slavery Society.

On motion. Resolved, That a committee of three be

"These are our views of the organized political parties our country at this time, and the important inquiry On motion, Resolved, That Rachel Thornburgh, Han-

Resolved, That this Society adopt such parts of the Constitution of the Indiana State Anti-Slavery Society, as

The committee appointed to prepare, draft and report a versive of the Christian Religion; and that it is an unmimale in this our beloved country, to raise her warning lence of the one, or the CRAFTY JESUTTISM OF ANOTHER OF THESE CANDIDATES for popular and temporal things for this object, until such time that, this our guilty nation may be induced to "undo the heavy burden, break every yoke and let the oppressed go free."

"Oh! if to Afric's sable race, A fearful debt we justly owe If Heaven's dread book record the trace Of every deed and thought below— And if for them the Christian prayer nplores of God to guide and save, Then let these helpless suppliants share Touch deep for them the pitying breast. Bid bounty's stream flow warm and free: For who can tell, among the blest, How sweet their Harps of Praise may be?"

[It is not necessary to publish the Constitution. The lard, cor. sec.; Cynthia Osborne, rec. sec.; Abigail Ropham, treasurer. Damaris Locke, Rachael Thornburgh, Malinda Maulshy, Mary, Mary, Maulshy, Mary, Maulshy, Mary, Maulshy, Mary, Mary, Mary, Maulshy, Mary, M

CHIVALRY. In self-praise some of our southern brethren

that strut the earth. The following from a and Fifth streets speech of Mr. Legare, an advocate of Gen.

"Mr. L. closed his remarks by adverting to the subject of abolition, and expressed his astonishment that appeals upon this subject should be made to the people of the slave holding States, such as had been recently witnessed. It was humiliating and degrading that they, the Burke, that from the peculiar structure of their society rights, the and able to maintain them, are now to be told that we the convention will be deeply interesting, as several talent rison is elected. Harry Clay will have the entire control of him, and he is a true friend of the South—and if Van his slaves within their limits.

It is not so much the action of government that affects trade, so injuriously, as it is change in its action.

It is not so much the action of government that affects trade, so injuriously, as it is change in its action.

It is not so much the action of government that affects trade, so injuriously, as it is change in its action.

It is not so much the slaveholder the right to hold of him, and he is a true friend of the South—and if Van Buren is re-elected. Dick Johnson will be there to watch him, so that but little injury can result any how."

It is not so much the action of government that affects trade, so injuriously, as it is change in its action.

It is not so much the action of government that affects trade, so injuriously, as it is change in its action.

It is not so much the action of government that affects trade, so injuriously, as it is change in its action.

It is not so much the action of government that affects trade, so injuriously, as it is change in its action.

It is not so much the action of government that affects trade, so injuriously, as it is change in its action.

It is not so much the salved delicity of her sons, for that which and Secretary, as such a federal President can neither give nor take away.

Away, then, with this vaunted but hollow and serf-like injury can result any how."

Resolved, That as abolitionists, we will not organize to unselves into a political party, nor will we give counter and information is indispensable.

Please address the same to H. H. Way, Cor. Sec'ry is the new thin, so that which a Federal President can neither give nor take away.

Away, then, with this vaunted but hollow and serf-like injury can result any how."

This very philosophical view of the subject seemed to division, your committee would offer the follow-information is indispensable.

State A. S. S., Newport Is.

By order of the Executive Committee t upon herself—the invincibility of her sons, for that which with the names of their President and Secretary, as such

REV. A. W. ELLIOTT.

telligencer does little credit to his own candor or Mr. Elliott's character, by refusing to give his readers both reports of the Convention, We have seen in the newspapers lately seve- when he knows that they are antipodes on al-

"THE INFLUENCE BEHIND THE

THRONE." Slaveholders calculate no little upon the in-there could be no doubt, that the South will be satisfied of the North, that however much they might be opposed that it is not their duty to entertain jurisdiction of the of O'Couneil, speak the praises of its author. This is

It has implicated the people of the United States universally in the guilt of aiding and abetting this monstrous crime; having secured a rep
It has passed laws in slave-strees for the pro
It has passed laws in slave-strees for the pro-

appointed to draft and report a constitution for the gov- in the firmness of Gen. Harrison, to carry out his patriotic pledges to maintain the compromises of the Coust

And who will be there to counteract the insupporting slavery in the District of Columbia ses of lawful business or pleasure in a slave. here to the present parties, according to our individual may be applicable to the condition of the Economy Wayne fluence of Henry Clay—of him who has smitten Webster the great Alexandria Servile!

> A short article is inserted on our first page, 1st colwas put in by the printer, without our knowledge, just to zans are nothing for the private and speculative views of tigated enormous mass of cruelty, injustice, and oppres- fill out the column. Had we known it in time, it should

THE LIBERTY TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT, JAMES G. BIRNEY, of Kentucky.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, THOMAS EARLE, of Pennsylvania.

Senatorial Electors. JAMES H. PAINE, Lake County. ROBERT STEWART, Ross County. District Electors.

JAMES C. LUBLOW, Hamilton. HORACE CROSS, Butler. LUTHER BRUEN, Montgo THOMAS HIBBEN, Clinton. BENJ. Monnis, Clermont. GEO. POTTER, Meigs. DIER BURGESS, Adams. MILO D. PETTIBONE, Delaware. EDWIN CORNER, Morgan. ROBINSON FLETCHER, Greene ELI NICHOLS, Belmont. 11th Joseph Linner, Licking. DAVID BIXBY, Knox. FRANCIS D. PARRISH, Huron Q. F. ATKINS, Cuyahoga. Lucretius Bissell, Ashtabula JACOB HEATON, Columbiana.

MARRIED, At Ripley, Oct. 7th., by Rev. W. Taylor, Rev. A. L. RANKIN, (son of Rev. John Rankin,) to Miss AMANDA

MICHAEL E. STRIEBY, Wayne.

RICHARD HAMMOND, Jefferson,

At Ripley, Oct. 8th, by the same, Mr. Jonx W. Hun-

NOTICE.

Ex-Senator Morris will deliver an address on the con-ection of the SLAVE-POWER with the politics of the country, next Saturday evening, at early candlelight, at can certainly exceed all the two legged vanities Samuel Davis's Carpenter Shop, corner of Western Rox Let there be a full attendance

ANTI-SLAVERY NOTICE.

The Annual meeting of the Cincinnati Ladies' A. Slav. Society will be held on Thursday the 15th inst. at three o'clock P. M. at Mrs. H. Miller's, on Vine st. 2 doors above 9th at. Those favorable to the education of oge colored population are respectfully invited to attend.

M. A. Blancharn, Sec, 196.

> For the Philanthropist. Semi-Annual Convention,

Philosophy and Consistency.

or refine your sentiments; but must keep on in one beaten track, without turning aside to the tight hand or left. 'But,' you say, I cannot submit to drudgery like this; I feel a spiritabove submit to drudgery l classmate has found his way into Congress, and is living amid the perpetual excitement of incellectual minds, while I am cooped up in an ig-tinction was as open to you as to him; why did you not choose it? Oh, I could not consent to be the tool of a party; to shake hands with the vicious, and flatter the fools. It would gull the vicious, and flatter the fools. It would gull the vicious to hear my opnoments accuse me to the quick to hear my opnoments accuse man. The sunlight streamed through the lofty windows of the court-room, and shed a halo around to pointed the saved, as more judged by five referees.

It may seem right to a man—to neglect pay—to should be saved, as more judged by five referees.

It was on a bright and beautiful afternoon in spring, when we met to hear this singular case. There are many who might, were it not for their negligence, section of the court-room, and shed a halo around to pointed to the saved, as more judged by five referees.

It may seem right to a man—to neglect pay—to dows of the court-room, and shed a halo around to pointed to the saved, as more judged by five referees.

It may seem right to a man—to neglect pay—to dows of the court-room, and shed a halo around to pointed to point a discourse from in the judged by five referees.

It was on a bright and beautiful afternoon in spring the same rosult. The sunlight streamed with nearly the same rosult. The judged by five referees.

It was on a bright and beautiful afternoon in spring, when we met to hear this singular case. There are many who might, were it not for their negligence, section of the court-room, and shed a halo around the proposed characteristic forms. The sunlight streamed through the lofty wind afternoon in spring the proposed characteristic forms. The sunlight streamed to the proposed characteristic forms are the fools. It was on a bright and beautiful afternoon in spring the proposed characteristic forms are the fools are proposed to the proposed characteristic forms are the fools are proposed to the proposed characteristic forms are the proposed characteristic forms are the proposed characteristic forms are the proposed characteristics are the propos me to the quick to hear my opponents accuse It may seem right to a man—to neglect pay- dows of the court-room, and shed a halo around long experienced physician in one of the southme of actions I never committed, and of motives which worlds would not tempt me to intives which worlds wou tives which worlds would not tempt me to inting upon his money, but the end therof is—a defendant; while the plaintiff's harsh features gave me in substance, the following account, as and charity of their neighbors.—Cultivator. know the whistle costs more than it is worth, It may seem right to a man—to live beyond his beam which softened the placid countenance of the was called a week or two previous to visit has not bought it?

write her composition for her, when we were at school together,' says she; 'and now she is continued to a man—to attempt to a quite the idol of the literary world; while I am

It may seem right to a man—to attempt to ob.

With which he now beheld his household goods thousand in our enlightenship high as the roots, shaped like the roof of a house.

On the literary world; while I am

On Clie. Why not write, then; and see if the world will not learn to introduce Clie as the ly borrowing of his neighbors and never willing display of oratory. friend of Matrona?' 'I write! not for the world! to lend, but the end thereof is-very cross neigh-I could not endure to pour my soulout to an undiscerning multitude; I could not see my cheringliance of which they have now become a subject to the street of the process of the proce ished thoughts caricatured by some soulless reviewer, and my favor le fancies expounded by his fame don't extend very far.

The merery opened a book of Statutes, and pointing with his finger to one of the pages, desired the referees to read it, while he retired

Lead to the statutes, and pointing with his finger to one of the pages, desired the referees to read it, while he retired

Lead to the statutes, and pointing with his finger to one of the pages, desired the referees to read it, while he retired

"Yet so it is through all classes of Society. own. All of us covet some neighbor's possession, and It may seem right to a man to be constantly think our lot would have been happier, had it slandering his neighbors, but the end thereof is been different from what it is. Yet most of us -nobody believes anything he says. could obtain worldly distinctions, if our habits

Such philosophy is rarely found. The most not done at all. perfect sample I ever met, was an old woman, It may seem right to a man—to attempt pleaswho was apparently the poorest and most foring every body, but the end thereof is—he pleaslorn of the human species—so true is the maxim es nobodywhich all profess to believe, and which none act upon invariably, viz., that happiness does not depend on outward circumstances. The neighbor in extravagance and luxury, but the wise woman, to whom I have alluded, walks to end thereof is he excels in folly. Boston, from a distance of 25 or 30 miles, 10 It may seem right for a man—to take no sell a bag of brown thread and stockings; and newspapers, but the end thereof is—that the man 29th day of April. then patiently foots it back again with her little and his family are totally ignorant of the ordinagains. Her dress though tidy, is a grotesque ry occurrences of the day collection of 'shreds and patches,' coarse in the It may seem right to a man—to obtain his since. extreme. Why don't you come in a wagon; news by borrowing and stealing of his neighsaid I, when I observed that she was soon to bebors, but the end thereof is—annoyance to his meeting?'

SASH & BLIND MANUFACTOR Main to right for females to be ignorant of this kind of work, than mental aberration in the wearers, should be voluntarily thrown aside. Pray, sister, lift they derive more harm than good. The occupation is

October 29th, 1839. come a mother, and was evidently wearied with her long journey.' 'We h'ant got any horse,' replied she: 'the neighbors are very kind to me, but they can't spare their'n; and it would cost as much to hire one, as all my thread will come to be out, but the pays the most needy last, if he pays them at all.

to,' 'You have a husband—don't he do any thing for you,' 'He is a good man; he does all he can; but he's a cripple and an invalid. He thereof is—an idolater.'

It may seem right to a man—to worship the creature more than the Creator, but the end tiff's counsel has pleaded eloquently in behalf There is a vast amount of true Philosophy exhibited in the following article from the pen of Mrs. Child; and it should be well considered by a cripple is a heavy mishous person where the pen of the by every person when setting out upon the great journey of life.

"Athiony all the fine finings Mrs. Bardand Wide, she never wrote anything better than her seasy on the Inconsistency of Himan Expects flows. Plexything, says the, its marked at entirely, is so much ready money, which we are to tay out to the best advantage. Examine, compare, so the behalf of the person of the should be willing to lose. They are as good as for many person, choose, reject but said to your own judgment; and do not, like children, when you have purchased any thing, repine that you do not proceed any or the person of the should be willing to fine the said to stand the strange story which it disclosed the plantiff, who was captain of a merchant have parts have become so from the lowest beginnings by this, and diligence, and attention to the manues of the pleasures of losivers, of an anomology and the strange story of the control of the pleasures of losivers, of an anomology and the strange story of the control of the strange story of the pleasures of losivers, of an anomology and the strange story of the control of the strange story of the strange by every person when setting out upon the great look upon it in that light,' replied the thread-wo-and make a figure, while I possess merely the common conveniences of life. Was it for formore frequently than ever. I then thought she were so poor, for it sometimes a many as are designed for the table, cover them over with earth or sand, and they will retain of the country upside down and time, then, that you grew pale over the midnight lamp, and gave the sprightly years of youth night lamp, and gave the sprightly years of youth

red in the brush."

A merchant of New York, in moderate but in prosperous circumstances, accidentially became happened that our only support was a bit of dry bread, and she was accustomed to see by the night lamp, and gave the sprightly years of youth to study and reflection? You then have mishinght, that was not "pitch dark?" of a stout manner no less than her extreme beauty, endealight of the chips which she kindled to warm her shipped to sea, they ought to be put into casks. to study and reflection? I od their have missing the proof of the study and reflection? I od their have missing the proof of the study and reflection? I man that was not as "strong as a horse?" or a mirry road that was not "up to the knees?" I would walk for mike an fact to see a man that was not as "strong as a horse?" or a man that was not as "strong as a horse?" or a man that was not as "strong as a horse?" or a man that was not as "strong as a horse?" or a man that was not as "strong as a horse?" or a man that was not as "strong as a horse?" or a man that was not as "strong as a horse?" or a man that was not as "strong as a horse?" or a man that was not as "strong as a horse?" or a man that was not as "strong as a horse?" or a man that was not as "strong as a horse?" I would walk for a mile of the strong as a horse of the strong a What reward! A large comprehensive soul, pur- would walk fifty miles on foot to see a man ged from vulgar fears and prejudices, able to in who never caricatures the subject on which he terpret the works of man and God. A perpet-speaks; but where is such a one to be found?—

Atter some months he offered his hand, and ing meal. Such was our poverty when my was accepted. As the wife of a successful mer-change to us, was like a sudden entrance, into nity of superior intelligence. Good Heaven! versation, we are constantly outraging the truth. of comforts and luxuries such as she had never paradise. We found a home and a father."

Well as its scarcity in winter, renders the best mode of packing it a matter of some importance. that such a one, who is a mean, dirty fellow, rich, we all say that the rolls in money." No blank that such a one, who is a mean, dirty fellow, rich, we all say that the rolls in money." No which wealth or extra the plaintiff, as he immediately waved the plaintiff wave the plai that such a one, who is a mean, dirty fellow, should have amassed wealth enough to buy half a mean dirty fellow, for that very end. He has a mean dirty fellow, for that very end. He has posterior, for it. Do you envy him his bargain! Will you hang your head in his presence, because he outshines you in equipage and show? Lift up your brow with a noble confidence, and say to yourself, 't have not these things, it is true; but your children to be gired with the word of marking of others; what is the most of manking not fer it. Boy one of the wines of marking in but advertisements.'' The law in the most of manking not fixed with the with the most of manking not fixed with the most of manking not fixed with the most of manking not fixed with the word with the word with the most of manking not fixed with the word with the chosen my lot! I am content, and satisfied.—
The most characteristic mark of a great mind is to choose some one object, whichit considers important and pursue that object through life. If we expect the nurchase we must pay the price.'

The most characteristic mark of a great mind is portant and pursue that object through life. If we expect the nurchase we must pay the price.'

The most characteristic mark of a great mind is portant and pursue that object, whichit considers important and pursue that object through life. If we expect the nurchase we must pay the price.'

The most characteristic mark of a great mind is will rouse no indignation? We wish to make our picture striking, and thus, like the painter, and shares my home—there is my father. For we expect the nurchase we must pay the price.'

The most characteristic mark of a great mind is will rouse no indignation? We wish to make our picture striking, and thus, like the painter, and shares my home—there is my father. For worked out before packing down. This is worked out before packing down. This is a sably necessary that every particle of butter-malk is no preparation of the day which enjoys are induced to put a "little too much color in the hand changed his ship; adopted another name, and spent the whole of that long period best years of his life have been received from him, the dish sports, and guardian of my inexperienced with the best medical authors our picture striking, and thus, like the painter, and shares my home—there is my father. For worked out before packing down. This is a columns to day of PETER'S VEGETAB my like the sweatness, it is indispendent to the well at the not diving a deed of injustice that they love on the best medical authors our picture striking, and thus, like the painter, and shares my home—there is my father. For a columns to day of PETER'S VEGETAB my like the sweatness, it is indispendent to the satisfaction our picture striking a deed of injustice that they love our picture striking a deed of injustice that they love our portant and pursue that object through life. If we expect the purchase we must pay the price.' But if it be thus in things little affect.

He had changed his ship; adopted another younder selfish wretch, I know him not. The last changed his ship; adopted another younder selfish wretch, I know him not. The last changed his ship; adopted another younder selfish wretch, I know him not. The last changed his ship; adopted another younder selfish wretch, I know him not. The last changed his ship; adopted another younder selfish wretch, I know him not. The last changed his ship; adopted another younder selfish wretch, I know him not. The last changed his ship; adopted another younder selfish wretch, I know him not. The last changed his ship; adopted another younder selfish wretch, I know him not. The last changed his ship; adopted another younder selfish wretch, I know him not. The last changed his ship; adopted another younder selfish wretch, I know him not. The last changed his ship; adopted another younder selfish wretch, I know him not. The last changed his ship; adopted another younder selfish wretch, I know him not. The last changed his ship; adopted another younder selfish wretch, I know him not. The last changed his ship; adopted another younder selfish wretch, I know him not. The last changed his ship; adopted another younder selfish wretch, I know him not. The last changed his ship; adopted another younder selfish wretch, I know him not. The last changed his ship; adopted another younder selfish wretch, I know him not. The last changed his ship; adopted another younder selfish wretch, I know him not. The last changed his ship; adopted another younder selfish wretch, I know him not. The last changed his ship; adopted another younder selfish wretch, I know him not. The last changed his ship; adopted another younder selfish wretch, I know him not. The last changed his ship; adopted another younder selfish wretch, I know him not. The last changed his ship; adopted another younder selfish wretch, I know him not. and perfume your hair, and place a garland up- of the butcher "sweet as a nut," and the cheeseon your head, and walk with a soft step, and assume a winning obsequious deportment.' 'But' as butter.' These are general remarks; how replied Jupiter, I 'am not willing to resign so do they affect you? To this inbuiry may be admuch of my dignity.' 'Then,' returned Cupid, ded another—how far do they affect Ephraim leave off desising to be leved.'

There were strange rumors of slave-trading and piracy affoat, but they were only whispers of conjecture rather than truth. Whatever might have been his motives for such conduct, he was certainly any thing but indifferent to his form.' 'Gentlemen,' 'said Burr, 'I have no more to say. The words of the law are expressed in have been his motives for such conduct, he was certainly any thing but indifferent to his form.' "Says Germanicus," 'There is my dunce of a by the facts we relate.—Ephraim Holding.

Brief Discourse.

and poverty.

the end thereof is-great negligence of his

It may seem right to a man-to excel his children and received from him every advantage "Would you excite my own children against There are several particulars of minor importance. Nothing was known concerning the plan

"There is a pretty passage in one of Lucian's dialogues, where Jupiter complains to Cupid that though he has had so many intrigues, he was never sincerely beloved. In order per has its "bargains," its "great savings," and to be loved your most of the purchase we must pay the price.' Brush.' But if it be thus in things little affecting us, still more it is the case where interest is on the ocean with only transient visits on shore, while taking in or discharging eargo; having where for the companion of his decripting, nor dare to insult the ashes of my mother per has its "bargains," its "great savings," and then perhaps you will have half completed it. When it is thoroughly worked, pack it down the underholds: you must carl the mercer is "fine as cambric," the mercer is "fine as cambric," and spent the whole of that one of our of his derivative with only transient visits on shore, while taking in or discharging eargo; having where for the companion of his decripting, where for the companion of his derivative with one of our of the operation very imperfectly. Work the butter four times as long as you think necessary, and the operation very imperfectly. When the dates of kindred from her deserted to insult the ashes of my mother of the operation very imperfectly. When the operation very imperfectly where for the companion of his deription, when the operation very imperfectly. When the operation very imperfectly where for the companion of his deription, where for the operation very imperfectly. When the operation very imperfectly where for the operation very imperfectly. When the operation very imperfectly where for the operation very imperfectly. When the operation very imperfectly where for the operation very imperfectly. When the operation very imperfectly wh

There were strange rumors of slave-tading and piracy affoat, but they were only wispers of conjecture rather than truth. When were only wispers to say. The words of the law are expressed in leavs off desiring to be loved,

"These remarks by Mrs. Barbauld are full of bis circle of acquaintances, and in the recesses of his own heart, the same neavishness of disconstitutes are being to be same neavishness of disconstitutes."

The same neavishness of disconstitutes and in the recesses of the same neavishness of disconstitutes and the decree of justice. There is scarcely and the plaintiff went forth followed by the contempt of every honorable man, who may be all that a lead another—how far do they affect Ephraim to they affect Ephraim between the motives for such conduct, he was been his for you to decide, according to the requisitions of nature and the decree of justice."

I need not say that our decision was in favor of the defendant, and the plaintiff went forth followed by the contempt of every honorable man, who was present at the trial.

There is scarcely and the decree of justice."

I need not say that our decision was in favor of the defendant, and the plaintiff went forth followed by the contempt of every honorable man, who was present at the trial. pectations, the same peevishness of disconspectations, the same peevishness of disconspectations and thoughtlessly—that we both, by putting occasionally "too much red in the brush," leave impressions not warranted the brush, "leave impressions not warranted to the charge of the law who was present at the trial.

"Says Germanicus," "There is my dunce of a same peevishness of disconspectations of the law who was present at the trial. of the law, who are always to be found crawling about the halls of justice, advised him to bring a suit against the second husband, assuring Mr. Editor. - I have seen and am much plea-were thrown into still bolder relief, by the same near as I can recollect.

the matter-of-fact editor of some suppid paper.'

Why does Matrona envy what she knows costs

The may seem right to a man—to trouble himself very much about his neighbor's business but was contemplated, though the deed was done by her own hand. We can call it by no softer the matter-of-fact editor of some suppid paper.'

Why does Matrona envy what she knows costs self very much about his neighbor's business but a suppid paper.'

We had scarcely finished the section that fully her own hand. We can call it by no softer the matter-of-fact editor of some suppid paper.'

The may seem right to a man—to trouble himself very much about his neighbor's business but a suppid paper.'

We had scarcely finished the section that fully her own hand. We can call it by no softer the matter-of-fact editor of some suppid paper.'

The may seem right to a man—to trouble himself very much about his neighbor's business but a suppid paper.'

The may seem right to a man—to trouble himself very much about his neighbor's business but a suppid paper.'

The may seem right to a man—to trouble himself very much about his neighbor's business but a suppid paper.'

The may seem right to a man—to trouble himself very much about his neighbor's business but a suppid paper.'

The may seem right to a man—to trouble himself very much about his neighbor's business but a suppid paper.'

The may seem right to a man—to trouble himself very much about his neighbor's business but a suppid paper.'

The may seem right to a man—to trouble himself very much about his neighbor's business but a suppid paper.'

The may seem right to a man—to trouble himself very much about his neighbor's business but a suppid paper.'

The may seem right to a man—to trouble himself very much about his neighbor's business but a suppid paper.'

The may seem right to a man—to trouble himself very much about his neighbor's business but a suppid paper.'

The may seem right to a man—to trouble himself very much about his neighbor's business but a suppid paper.'

The may seem right to a m decided the matter in our mids, when Burr re- name than self-slaughter, for such even an exentered with a tall and elegant female leaning on his arm. She was attired in a simple white dress, with a wreath of ivy leaves encircling her large straw bonnet, and a lace veil completely concealed her countenance. Burr whispered a few words apparently apequaging her to add few words apparently appeared as a few words apparently appeared and so great was the curvature of the spine and a few words apparently appeared and so great was the curvature of the spine and a few words apparently appeared at the bedy proved it to have ignorance of the generality of young women, is a fruit-ign

"Do you know this lady?" Answer-I do." Burr-'Will you swear to that?'

Answer'I will, to the best of my knowledge. Burr-'Can you swear to the identity.'

The plaintiff hesitated-a long pause ensued-

On the 14th day of May, 17-

wored to improve their acquaintance with friend- famishing children, because she could not pur- shipped to sea, they ought to be put into casks and covered with sand.—Albany Cultivator.

After an absence of thirty years, during which my infancy who was the sharer of my chil- disuse, of employing chloride of lime.

From the Health Journal. Death from tight lacing.

"Matrona alway wears a discontented look when she hears the praise of Clio. 'I use to when she hears the praise of Clio. 'I use to the reof is—disgusting to all sensible folks, and the containing to the contain a young female, I think, over twenty years of removed to consecrate a stranger's hearth. The celebrated Aaron Burr was counsel for the defendant, and we anticipated from him a splendid inflamation which had proceeded to such a height leaves will be turned guite white. As they are that death was inevitable. Little or nothing not apt to keep well after they are taken out, Contrary to our expectations, however, Burr could be done. The poor girl, after a very few two or three at a time may be taken as they are wonderful cure that have ever been known, and a subject to the poor girl, after a very few two or three at a time may be taken as they are

AGRICULTURAL.

Harvesting Potatoes.

Never commence harvesting your potatoes till be done? For want of sol Never commence narvesting your potatoes that they have come to full maturity, or till the frost they have come to full maturity, or till the frost be occupied with trifles: for want of full maturity and the tops are full maturity and the tops are full maturity woman because the commence of the commenc best years to the drudgery of sordid poverty, supported only by the hope of her husband's return? Who will paint the slow progress of heart-sickening, the wasting anguish of hope deferred, them to remain out in the sun or air, longer lar exercise, both of body and mind, than you can possibly help. I am well aware lively, strong and active, cheerful an that this direction is at once in opposition to the ties highly beneficial to health, not rule of many farmers, which is to allow their potatoes to remain out in the sun, drying, as long as they can, and yet, have them picked up on the same day they are dug, in order that as taste for shows and public many farmers, which is to allow their vantages mentally beneficial to health, not vantages mentally they procure. The control of the same day they are dug, in order that as much of the earth as possible, may cleave off taste for shows and public anusem from them. This is very bad management for desire for novel excitements, alike sworn to love and cherish? We need not inpotatoes designed for table use; because it renhealth and innocence. Well-informed date them strong are add in table. ders them strong, or acid in taste. Every attentive observer has noticed that that cheerful but rational amusements, ger

Every attentive observer has noticed that that part of the potatoe which happens to be uncovered in the hill, changes its color to a dark green.

This portion is very much injured in taste; in fact it is unfit for use, because it has imbibed the minds, that know nothing, and have from the atmosphere deleterious qualities. As their own, are so eager, present no atto soon as potatoes are dug, and exposed to the contrary, some women who are ignorant light and air, this change begins. Every attentive observer has also noticed that potatoes are of best flavor and quality, after they have come to maturity, and while they are yet in the ground. The longer they are dug and exposed to the longer they are longer they light and air, the more of this high flavor is submit to drudgery like this; I feel a spirit above it. "I's well: be above it then: only do not replied service. I wanted true, hearty, well may be purchased by steady application, and by such a mother."—Family Mag.

But, says the man of letters, whist a hardship is that many an illiterate fellow, who cannot construct the motto on his coach, shall raise a fortune and make a figure, while I possess merely the mother of the figure, and make a figure, while I possess merely the mother of the figure, and make a figure, while I possess merely the mother of the figure.

Son from that poor old woman which I shall not believe he had found a grave beneath the weltering ocean, the wanted true, hearty, well the woon forget. It I wanted true, hearty, well and on the vision of poverty were now added to her affliction, and the widow found herself obliged to resort to some employers, and for the following one. Saving that we describe. We cannot struct the motto on his coach, shall raise a fortune and make a figure, while I possess merely the things that we describe. We cannot constitute the motto on his coach, shall raise a fortune and make a figure, while I possess merely the things that we describe. We cannot constitute the motto on his coach, shall raise a fortune and make a figure, while I possess merely the things that we describe. We cannot constitute the motto on his coach, shall raise a fortune and make a figure, while I possess merely the things that we describe. We cannot constitute the motto on his coach, shall raise a fortune and make a figure, while I possess merely the things that we describe. We cannot constitute the motto on his coach, shall raise a fortune and make a figure, while I possess merely the things that we describe. We cannot constitute the motto on his coach, shall raise a fortune and make a figure, and the wild will not believe he will not make a figure in your standard with my mother. She used to carry out every Staturday evening the work which or carry out every Staturday evening the work which gone, till it is wholly lost, and they become

Packing Butter.

The increased price of butter in autumn, as had been ordered out, and the populace mode of packing it a matter of some importance.

could ten, and ne obsumately refused all explana- She drew her veil hastily around her as she an inch of very strong brine, and keep it in the

to intermix, when intended for seed, should be medicine, both for power and innocence. planted at such distance from each other that the pollen of their flowers cannot intermix. Beets, Deur Sir:-For upwards of fifteen years cabbages, turnips, squashes, melons and even severely troubled with a diseased liver, and tellectual minds, while I am cooped up in an ignorant country parish, obliged to be at the beek and call of every old woman, who happens to feel uneasy in her mind.

We hope it will not be deemed sacrilegious to finetion was as open to you as to him; why did of divine truth, as a text to discourse from in the minds of the same plant, if pure seed would absurdity of instituting a claim for a wife whom absurdity of instituting a claim for a wife whom death had already released from the jurisdiction of earthly laws, was so manifest that it was at facts, whether communicated in elegant language or not. I have recently learned one to which I wanted.

Text.—"There is a way that seemeth right to absurdity of instituting a claim for a wife whom death had already released from the jurisdiction of earthly laws, was so manifest that it was at facts, whether communicated in elegant language or not. I have recently learned one to which I wanted. Herbs too should be saved, as more of the same plant, if pure seed would be had. Seeds keep well, by simply cutting them up for a menth or two of earthly laws, was so manifest that it was at facts, whether communicated in elegant language or not. I have recently learned one to which I wanted. Herbs too should be saved, as more failures disgusted me with the real names of the same plant, if pure seed would be had. Seeds keep well, by simply cutting them up for a menth or two of earthly laws, was so manifest that it was at facts, whether communicated in elegant language or not. I have recently learned one to which I wanted. Herbs too should be saved, as more failures disgusted me with the real names of the same plant, if pure seed would be had. Seeds keep well, by simply cutting them up of earthly laws, was so manifest that it was at facts, whether communicated in elegant language or not. I have recently learned one to which I wanted to pure the adverted to pure the adverted to pure the adverted to pure the same plant, if pure seed would be had. Seeds keep well, by simply cutting the

Method of preserving Cabbage, so as to have them good in the spring

From the Journal of Health.

could obtain worldly distinctions, if our habits and inclinations allowed us to pay the immense price at which they must be purchased. True wisdom lies in finding out all the advantages of a situation in which we are placed, instead of imagining the enjoyments of one in which we are placed.

It may seem right to a man—to indulge his children in every thing, but the end thereof is—his children will indulge themselves in dishouor-ing him the following complaints: Yellow and pour and so great was the curvature of the spine, which had been girded in by the cords of death, that after the corpse was laid out for interment, imagining the enjoyments of one in which we are placed.

It may seem right to a man—to indulge his few words apparently encouraging her to advantages of imagining the enjoyments of one in which we are placed, instead of imagining the enjoyments of one in which we are placed.

It may seem right to a man—to indulge his few words apparently encouraging her to advantages of production in the following complaints: Yellow and was a few words apparently encouraging her to advantages of imagining the enjoyments of one in which we are placed, instead of imagining the enjoyments of one in which we are placed, instead of imagining the enjoyments of one in which we are placed, instead of imagining the enjoyments of one in which we are placed, instead of imagining the enjoyments of one in which we are placed, instead of imagining the enjoyments of one in which we are placed, instead of imagining the enjoyments of one in which we are placed, instead of imagining the enjoyments of one in which we are placed, instead of imagining the corporation, they cannot be expected to without solid information, they cannot be expected to us a face of production, and inclination or taste for study, or for rational date, Janualice, Asthma, Dopsy, Rhear the corps was a fail out for interment, the following complaints: Yellow and words and so great was the curvature of the spine, which had been girded in by the cords of geath, wh thing that ought to be done to-day, until to-burst from the lips of all present. Turning to the She was a large, healthy person, and was igno-amples of persons of their own age who are plunged in all cases of persons of their own age who are plunged in the lips of all present. Turning to the she was a large, healthy person, and in all cases of persons of their own age who are plunged in the lips of all present. Turning to the she was a large, healthy person, and in all cases of persons of their own age who are plunged in the lips of all present. amples of persons of their own age who are plunged in dissipation, or occupy their waking hours in languid indence or frivolous amusements, contribute to make them disposition, and correct morals habits, otherwise.

My own mind was so impressed with the re-My own mind was so impressed with the renecessity of acquiring this kind of knowledge, excepting

Dr. Peters Pills can be obtained in almost a find the state of Burr—'Can you swear to the identity.'

Answer—'I can.'

Burr—'What is her age?'

Answer—'She was thirty years of age on the Burr—'When did you see her last?'

Answer—'At her own house about a fortnight one.'

Answer—'At her own house about a fortnight one.'

My own mind was so impressed with the recital hardly forbear weeping over the folly, and weakness, and ignorance, and wickedness of my sex. I inwardly directed to it by the good sense of a mother. As mong the opulent classes, young women are not necessity of acquiring this kind of knowledge, excepting in those instances where their attention has been particularly directed to it by the good sense of a mother. As mong the opulent classes, young women are not necessity of acquiring this kind of knowledge, excepting in those instances where their attention has been particularly directed to it by the good sense of a mother. As mong the opulent classes, young women are not necessity of acquiring this kind of knowledge, excepting in those instances where their attention has been particularly directed to it by the good sense of a mother. As mong the opulent classes, young women are not necessity of acquiring this kind of knowledge, excepting in those instances where their attention has been particularly directed to it by the good sense of a mother. As mong the opulent classes, young women are not necessity of acquiring this kind of knowledge, excepting in those instances where their attention has been particularly directed to it by the good sense of a mother. As mong the opulent classes, young women are not necessity of acquiring this kind of knowledge, excepting in those instances where their attention has been particularly directed to it by the good sense of a mother. As mong the opulent classes, young women are not necessity of acquiring this kind of knowledge, excepting in those instances where their attention has been particularly to the good sense of a mother. As mong the opulent classes, young women are not necessity of acquiring this kind of knowledge, exce up your renovated voice anew-labor with the very often for mere show, and they seldom apply to it the question was repeated, and the answer was, sin of enlightened Christian America, and may way that time, which, for want of rational means of en-'On the 14th day of May, 17—

'When she was just three weeks old,' added Burr 'Gentlemen,' continued he, turning to us, that they may seek to please Him. M. M.

FOREIGN NEW

wages, and masses had collected in the perthe amount of 40,000 persons. An addit

We would call the auention to the adverti columns to day of PETER'S VEGETAR administered them to children of a week old, rious times have given away as many as twenty to severe sufferers, and thereby broken sever vers. At one time of my life I practiced mer am at present a setler in the army, where ther

GEORGE R. HO PETER'S VEGETABLE PILLS.

The town and the country are alike filled virtues. In all climates, under all the tempe Nervous Disorders of Females.

It is remarked by the good and wise Fenelon, that the preparation, mild in their action; thorough in

M. T. & R. GLASGOW.

ell to suit purchasers.

HEATON AND WEA

Salem, Columbiana Co. Ö. Sept. 10 1830.